Committee Reports

Once again, the League of Women Voters of Oak Park & River Forest had a year full of accomplishments due to the leadership of our Board and Committee chairs. Members contributed their time, wisdom, and passion to ensure the League's mission of encouraging citizens to be informed and active participants in local, state and national government was accomplished. Below are committee reports that summarize the many accomplishments of the 2016-17 program year. Each and every committee played a part in helping our membership to grow into the largest League in Illinois. These voices combined will help increase understanding of public policy issues and hopefully make an impact in our local community, our state, and our nation.

Committee Report Highlights for 2016-17

Advocacy - Chairperson Diane Moses

The Advocacy Committee met with Representative Lilly, Representative Emmanuel Chris Welch, Senator Harmon, and Senator Lightford.

We have a meeting scheduled with Representative Ford on May 3rd.

We found that our Senators and Representatives are very concerned with helping and "doing the right thing."

We thank the following people who have gone on these visits:

Beverly Graham, Carolyn Skipper, Kathy Balk, Mary Ann Mohanraj, Marsha Borders, Krista Grimm from LaGrange, Mary Klonoski from LaGrange, Sandra Sokol, Mary Rose Lambke, and Fran Sampson.

It was great to team with representatives from the LaGrange League.

Archives – Chairperson Johan Walsh

The Archives Committee supports archival development and oral history of LWVOPRF and continues to collaborate with the Historical Society of Oak Park and River Forest to store and maintain the LWVOPRF archive.

Children's and Youth Issues – Chairperson Michelle Mbekeani-Wiley

Communications- Sarah Shirk, Marissa Garza, Alyssa Ralston, Peggy Kell

Communications Committee has made an intentional effort to engage our community (both current members and the general public) with social media tools. Over the summer, a subcommittee made up of Ann Bolan, Heather Cunningham, Peggy Kell, and Sarah Shirk created a new LWVOPRF website using the Weebly platform. New website went live in September 2016. Week-in-Preview is a Constant Contact newsletter that goes to all members each Monday. Appreciation is given to Peggy Kell for editing both the weekly newsletter and more extensive monthly League Matters. New committee members Alyssa Ralston and Marissa Garza have stepped up to manage LWVOPRF Instagram and Facebook accounts. Facebook traffic records indicate an increase of activity from non-members, especially during the election season. Total "Likes" on Facebook are currently over 440, indicating that this outreach tool is reaching well beyond the membership base. Committee is considering website expansion with possible Podcasts in the future.

The committee organized and promoted three Great Decisions discussion groups at three different locations and times from February to May. Thank you to Ann Marohn for hosting the Tuesday afternoon group at Brookdale and to the River Forest Library staff for hosting the group at the River Forest Library on Tuesday evenings. The Thursday afternoon group met at the Maze Library with Jean Peterman. Group attendance was anywhere from 7-40 per session with 37 briefing books ordered and sold.

League Matters – Editor Peggy Kell

The League Matters newsletter continues to be sent out the first Monday of the month via email. We still do mail out copies to about 10 members. The newsletter is also posted on our website. This platform allows us to gauge our members readership and also permits us to send out surveys and invites. Are you getting the newsletter on the first Monday of the month? Are you getting the Week in Preview emails the other Mondays?

Membership Development - Chairpersons Marilyn Cantisano, Donalda Ellek

The Membership Committee has had a very busy year. The League has welcomed 50 new members since August 2016. Last year we made an effort to contact each new member to personally welcome them to our organization. We also established a mentoring program whereby current members phoned or emailed new members to act as their resource person and to help them become involved in our local League. Every new member now receives a personal email welcoming them to the League. They also receive a Welcome Packet, which includes the membership directory. In the email they are asked if they would like a current member to contact them and if so, a resource person is given their name. We would like to thank all the current members who have acted as a resource person to a new member—Kathy Balk, Linda Bauer, Rhonda Bernstein, Ann Bolan, Ann Courter, Heather Cunningham, Joan Fiscella, Beverly Graham, Mary Haley, Peggy Kell, Ann Marohn, Marge Massarello, Mary Cay Murray, Jackie Paine, Joan Petertil, Sarah Shirk, Sandra Sokol and Johan Walsh. Many of these people have also given time and input to the Membership Committee.

The Committee has held two Member Meetings this past year. Our September Kick Off on 9/20/2016 was attended by 42 current and 10 prospective members. Our program incorporated time to socialize, a light dinner and featured presentations on the referendum on the November ballot. On 1/14/2017 the committee hosted a Member Coffee. This gathering attracted 34 current and 14 prospective members. Featured were short summaries by Committee Chairs and a presentation by the LWV, Lake Michigan Region.

Our Committee goals continue to be: to increase the numbers and diversity of our membership; and to contact all members, but especially new members to be sure they feel included and to encourage involvement in our organization.

On Sunday June 6, the Membership Committee has arranged to have a booth for The League of Women Voters at Day in Our Village in Oak Park. We hope to increase our visibility in the community.

Observers – Chairperson Mary Haley

We have had a busy year with many important issues coming before the elected boards in our villages. Referendums for Districts 200 and 97, requests for zoning variances in Oak Park, TIF requests in River Forest and the ongoing debates about pools and high rise development are just some of the issues the observers have followed and updated our members on through our monthly reports. Most of the Oak Park Boards now have permanent observers. We need observers for the River Forest and Forest Park board as well as for Triton.

A real concern for the observers is how few members access the reports on our website. Our presence at the meetings encourages transparency in our local government bodies and provides everyone with an easy way of keeping up with what is going on in village government. . If anyone has suggestions about how we can make our reports more relevant, please share your ideas with us.

Finally, thank you to our new observers: Lauren Behan, Suzanne Davis, Leigh Eichler and Ameri Klafeta. And many thanks to Mary Rose Lambke and Jane Schlichting who have retired as observers after many years of service.

Second Tuesday –Chairpersons Glynne Gervais, Stephen Jordan

This has been an interesting first year co-chairing the Second Tuesday group. Stephen Jordan and I have been most fortunate to find people who are passionate about their work or avocation and shared their knowledge with us. We also thank members who told us about some of these presenters.

The attendance has been between ten to thirty per session. Weather was a factor in a few instances, but we had a loyal group of fifteen. Our lowest month was January, but it was most needed. We were all still in shock about the election results. We were able to flush out our thoughts and to move forward with what it would take to hold on to our values. That discussion has directed our forward programming.

Topics and speakers we had:

- presentation on the District 200 referendum by both pro and con sides of the issue. We received a lot of facts to help us vote..
- An update on the transportation issue on the Eisenhower issue. Rick Kuner was most informative and up to date.
- We learned about the recently created position of Community Resources at the Library. Robert Simmons is the manager who spoke about his role and how it fit in with what the Library focus on patrons needs.
- We heard about a newly formed organization that teaches children a healthy way to look at sex and health . Nina Davis Brewer and Nara Nayar have a developed and tested curriculum . Classes are filling up at OWL Our Whole Lives is a holistic , comprehensive sexuality education for grades Kindergarten through 8th grade.
- We heard about an organization founded by Beth Isaacs that provides support to incarcerated mothers and their babies. There are not many prison birth programs. Il. Birth Justice does this at Cook County jail.
- We had a good turnout for the program on Why Journalism Matters led by Deborah Kaden. She gave many points on what are credible news sources and how to identify them, what the current environment means to freedom of the press and how is factual reporting constructed.
- We looked at the current immigration issue with the expert guidance of Marketa Lindt , an immigration lawyer at Sidley Austin LLP and a national officer of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. She spoke about the key points of President Trump's immigration platform. What has changed since the election and how this has affected communities. We spoke on what we can do to be involved and what we can expect to change. President Trump's immigration platform. What has changed since the election and how this has affected communities. We spoke on what we can do to be involved and what we can expect to change.
- In May, we will look at climate change issues with Lucia Whalen. We have named this one "Climate Change and Civic Engagement in Our Community".

We look forward to possible discussions for next season. We thank the Nineteenth Century Club for the use of the space and the support they have given us with set up and beverages.

Voter Service – Chairperson Peggy Kell

Voter Service was very busy this year what with a November Presidential election followed by April Municipal elections. Voter registration before the November election was done at block parties, area high schools, the Food Pantry, Churches, the Cook County Jail and Senior Living facilities. We netted over 300 new voters. We also sponsored two mock elections; one at Julian Middle School and one at Mother Guerin Prep in River Grove. We held three candidate forums in Oak Park and two in River Forest, where we partnered with the River Forest Service. Videos of all five forums were all posted on our website, where viewership ran from 550 to 130 views for the videos. Videos of candidates in uncontested races were also posted. Our Committee volunteers helped ensure successful and well organized voter registration drives and candidate forums. Well done!

POLITICAL ACTIVITY POLICY:

Marilyn Cantisano 2017 Hazel Hanson Award Winner

I was born in Rochester, NY and grew up there surrounded by a large extended Italian family. I first became politically aware when at ten years old I watched the Nixon-Kennedy debates on TV. I was fascinated by the interaction between those two men and saw in Kennedy's presidency an exciting future for our country. Of course, his assassination, followed by the assassinations of Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy, was devastating. I watched the Civil Rights Movement and the protests against the Vietnam War, too. George McGovern was the first presidential candidate I stumped the pavement for and my first vote cast in a presidential race (I had missed being 18 for the 1968 vote by five days). Unfortunately we know how that election turned out.

I entered The Ohio State University in 1967. This was a time of social action. During the protests decrying the Vietnam War, the National Guard was on the OSU campus. When the students were killed at nearby Kent State University by the Ohio National Guard, OSU was also immediately closed down. I still remember the feeling of the tear gas the Guards used against us. In 1972, I received my Masters Degree in Social Work. I moved to the Chicago area and worked as a School Social Worker for several years, first at East Leyden High School in Franklin Park and then at Leigh and Giles Elementary Schools in Norridge, where I was the first School Social Worker hired after the state mandated these services be provided. After taking time off from the workforce and staying home with my children, I began working part time at the Infant Welfare Clinic in Oak Park and later at Parenthesis Parent Child Center. At Parenthesis I was Director of the Evening Programs and worked primarily with teen parents and single parents.

In 1997 when my oldest son graduated from High School, I left Parenthesis and in 1998, with my friend Pam Risher, I began a travel business, City Ventures Tours. This business grew from our first tour to the Art Institute with only four travelers to full day and multi-day tours for locals and out-of-town travelers. In 2009, I sold my portion of the business to Pam, and I am now "hired" by her to lead between 10-15 tours a year.

I joined the League of Women Voters in 1997. I have always been interested in politics, supporting voting rights, women's rights, environmental protection and other progressive policies. I wasn't active in the League for several years because of the time commitment of starting a business, but in 2009, I came out of hiding and began going to League meetings and events. I have been a Board Member, Vice President, Co-Chair of the Voter Services Committee, Co-Chair of the 2015 State of the Villages, and I am currently Co-Chair of the Membership Committee. The League has allowed me the privilege of meeting some of the brightest, most compassionate, and politically active women in the area.

My interests are reading, traveling, walking outdoors, spending time with family, friends, and most of all my four grandchildren. I have lived in Oak Park for 44 years and have been married for 43 of those years to my husband Donald Southworth. I have two grown sons.

I try to remain hopeful in the new political climate. Now more than ever organizations like the League of Women Voters that believe in a strong democracy are essential to helping people take stands for human rights. As of the day I am writing this, I am pleased to say our local Oak Park-River Forest League has had 50 new members since August 2016. There is hope!
