A Year of Action

President's Message

Dear League Members,

Our very active volunteers have some great events planned for the next few months, and we hope you can attend at least a few. And, if you're interested, you can help plan events for next year!

Two of these events deserve special mention. The first is the State of the City luncheon, to be held on Tuesday, May 2 at the Union League Club. This is a major fundraiser for us; the money supports our work on voter service, education and civic engagement. This year, we will have a discussion on the topic City Hall and City Council: Is the Balance of Power Shifting? Mary Ann Ahern of NBC TV will moderate with Mary Mitchell of the Chicago Sun Times, Ben Joravsky of the Chicago Reader, and Hal Dardick of the Chicago Tribune on the panel. They will tell us how they view the situation as political reporters. This event attracts many non-members. Please consider inviting a friend who may be interested in supporting the League.

The second event is the League of Women Voters of Illinois Convention, to be held June 9, 10, and 11 at the Hilton Garden Inn in Des Plaines. On Friday, Convention kicks off with a series of workshops on issues, action, and membership development. Then Saturday and Sunday will cover LWVIL business: bylaws changes, issues and action program, and election of officers. Everyone is welcome to attend – and, in fact, we need delegates to vote in Saturday and Sunday's business session. Convention is a great introduction to the work and organization of the League. And, because of generous donors to the recent leadership fund drive, we can cover the registration costs for as many as 20 members of LWVChicago who want to attend. (You will have to cover optional costs of food, lodging, and transportation.) Let us know if you wish to participate. We'll get back to you to confirm that we'll reimburse your registration fee. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Social Policy/Housing

The topics for the Social Policy/Housing Briefing/Open Meeting on April 8 will be Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing and CHA's 10-Year Plan for the Transformation of Public Housing.

This program could not be more timely with the announcement on March 29 by Inspector General Joe Ferguson about affordable housing fees.

The speakers will be Patricia Fron, Executive Director, Bob Palmer, and Leah Levinger. See the flyer on page 6 of this Chicago Voter, for details.

Contact the office by email or phone 312-939-5949 to be placed on the building security list.

After this meeting attendees are invited to stay for about an hour to discuss opportunities for action.

Briefing on Education Funding

On March 11 the LWVChicago Education Committee held a briefing on the Evidence-Based Model as a new method of funding education in Illinois. Ralph Martire, executive director of the Center for Tax and Budget Accountability, spoke on the issue.

As Martire explained, Illinois schools are funded on the basis of a foundation level, a minimum target amount per student for all districts, which is supplemented by categorical funds. This method is not tied to the actual cost of education, and funding among districts is not equal.

Illinois ranks 50th in state funding for education. On a real or inflation-adjusted basis, there has not been an increase in total state funding to our public schools since 2008.

The Evidence-Based Model was developed to address problems in education funding. Its features include an adequacy target for each district based on demographics; a local contribution target; a resource ratio; funding tiers to address first those with the lowest resource ratios; and accountability consisting of a review panel that continually reviews outcomes. The Evidence-Based Model is based on the cost of practices that research shows kids need to succeed.

Next Chicago in Focus

Come join us at the Union League Club on Thursday, May 11 for our final program of the season. Laura Caldwell, Director of Life after Innocence, author and Loyola University Law Professor, will speak about the shameful practice of putting innocent people in jail for crimes they didn't commit. Why did this happen? Is it still happening?

See the CiF flyer on page 6 of this Chicago Voter for details. There is no charge, and all are invited. To ensure that we have a large enough room, however, please RSVP to the League office, 312-939-5949 or League@LWVChicago.org.

Breakfast and Orientation for New and Prospective Members April 22

The February 4 event was “sold out,” so another one will be held on Saturday, April 22 from 9:30 to 11:30 at Aqua Tower. All new members who did not attend the February Orientation and have joined since July 1 of 2016, and prospective members identified by our existing members, should have already received an invitation via email.

Besides enjoying tasty hot and cold breakfast items furnished by the Board and Membership Committee, those attending will have the opportunity to learn from a variety of speakers about the different activities of the LWVChicago, as well as about the levels of the League we automatically join as members of Chicago League. Attendees will also be invited to get involved and help make a difference! In order to attend, you must RSVP because the Aqua desk staff must have your name. But don't delay your response. Health Care Report

Affordable Care Act

On March 24 House Speaker Paul Ryan and President Trump announced that there were not enough votes to pass the bill to repeal and replace the ACA. Speaker Ryan said he was pulling the bill and that the ACA would remain the law of the land.

This was good news for supporters of affordable quality healthcare for all, and was the result of advocacy efforts from concerned parties all over the country. Here in Illinois the LWV worked with others in the Protect Our Care IL Coalition (PoCIL) to oppose the repeal and replace bill being considered in Congress. League members, who were constituents, contacted the seven Illinois

Representatives who indicated they supported repeal and replace through phone, email, rallies, and social media. A few League members had a sit-down meeting with Rep. Hultgren, and some others had a video conference with Rep. Kinzinger. Other League members, who are not constituents, did their part by contacting friends or family who live in these districts, writing letters to the editor, and participating in social media. We are grateful for all their efforts.

However, there is still much work to do. Shortly after his inauguration President Trump signed a directive to government officials that it was not necessary to enforce the rules of the ACA, such as paying a penalty if one does not enroll in an insurance plan; this will weaken the law. Also the ACA still has many flaws; for many in the individual market the cost is too high, there are limited insurance choices, and available insurance may also restrict an individual's choice of medical providers. These problems need to be solved.

Remember the ACA as first passed was just a foot in the door; we still have a way to go before we achieve affordable quality health care for all.

During the past few months there has been a lot of news and discussion about repeal and replacement of the ACA.

The result is more understanding about it and polls from Kaiser, Pew Research, and Quinnipiac show that the ACA has greater popularity and its highest favorability ratings since its inception.

LWVCHICAGO COMMITTEES

State of the City

Preparations are continuing for our State of the City fundraising luncheon on May 2: City Hall and City Council: Is the Balance of Power Shifting? Save the Date flyers have been sent, an ad (see below) is being placed in the online subscription newsletter The Daily Line, an invitation is included in this Chicago Voter on page 8 and more information will follow.

This will be a very informative program, with leading journalists discussing power politics, effective representation, and internal City Council dynamics. Mary Ann Ahern will moderate the discussion. Hal Dardick, Ben Jarovsky, and Mary Mitchell will serve on the panel. If you are interested in volunteering some time to help with the work of the committee, please let us know. You wish to register, please see our website for more information.

Karen Sandrick and Rae Sokolow

Education Committee

Members of the Education Committee continue to meet with legislators in order to promote an independent audit committee for the Chicago Board of Education. Committee members have generated some interest in the position, but not a lot of success. We will continue pushing forward with this idea.

Several members of the Committee met with Raise Your Hand, a coalition of parents and concerned citizens who advocate for quality public education for all children in Chicago and Illinois. Committee members and representatives from Raise Your Hand are planning on the next move regarding school vouchers. A new idea has been suggested in the state legislature which is tax credits. These credits would once again take money from the traditional public schools and give it to charter and private schools. Raise Your Hand has written a letter to voice concerns regarding vouchers as well as tax credits. LWVChicago has signed onto the letter along with many other organizations.

Rae Sokolow

Communications Committee

Committee members have been looking into redesigning the website with a new easier-to-use format, using social media effectively, gathering LWV history information, revising a lobbying publication, and publishing factual information for members. We need to assess what we have left to do with these projects and how best to continue our plans to promote the League's good work.

We have a lot of well researched information and are active when lobbying for our positions, but we need to become better at communicating what we know and what we do. Now more than ever, people need to know that the League will continue to work for government policies that are effective, transparent and fair.

The Communications Committee will meet on Thursday April 6 at 6pm. If you would like to join us join this effort, please come and share your ideas for communicating the League's information and activities.

Cathy Potkay

Health Committee

The Health Committee has had its first meeting. Attendees agreed that the most pressing health concern in Chicago and Illinois is the repeal and replacement of the ACA. Cook County Hospital is one of the largest providers of healthcare in Chicago. We have been asked by LWVCook County if our members would join them and participate as observers in Cook County Health and Hospitals Systems Board meetings. The next Committee meeting will be Thursday April 13 at 12:15pm.

Millions of Lives Saved as ACA Replacement Bill Failed

Washington, DC – Chris Carson, President of the League of Women Voters of the United States, issued the following statement after the US House Speaker Paul Ryan pulled the American Health Care Act from the House floor on March 24, canceling the vote: “Today we saw further proof that the American Health Care Act is the wrong solution to healthcare in this country. This unpopular legislation is bad for women, bad for families and bad for seniors. The House took the right step by not voting on this un-American bill that would take away health coverage for millions of Americans.”
