Democracy Wins - October 12, 2026

A judge ruled that FEMA and DHS could not withhold funds if election sites did not make voting changes wanted by the Administration.

A federal judge blocked the Administration from pursuing border wall construction in the Big Bend region in Texas.

After extreme pressure, Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito recused himself from a major climate case because of his financial interests in energy companies.

An appeals court ruled that Trump's name can't be carved into the Institute of Peace building.

A judge overturned Trump's decision to fire the court-appointed top U.S. prosecutor in Seattle.