

Celebrate Earth Day
with
The Town of Narragansett, Land Conservation Commission,
The University of Rhode Island, and Narragansett 2100
On Saturday April 21st from 1-3.

All participants will meet at the south beach lot at 1:00pm to get assignments of areas to beautify.

We will end our celebration by planting a red maple tree between Mumford Road and the road in Sprague Park that leads to the tennis courts

All are welcome to join in this celebration

Rain date: Sunday April 22nd
