

National History Day Contest Results!

21 Students from the Pier Middle School participated in the Rhode Island State National History Day Contest on Saturday, April 28th. 16 of those students were invited back to the awards ceremony that took place on Monday May 30th. Here are the results:

3rd Place Junior Group Documentary

Ava Pistacchio, Emma Landy & Ashley Conroy "Comfort Women of WWII"

3rd Place Group Website

Bodhi Parks, Tom Kisiliwycz & Calvin Cinquegrana "Roger Williams"

3rd Place Junior Individual Website

Emma Murphy "Asa Phillips"

3rd Place Junior Individual Performance

Isabella McElroy "The Cuban Missile Crisis"

3rd Place Junior Historical Paper

Anne Hoaglund "The Camp David Accords: Pivotal and Precarious"

2nd Place Junior Individual Exhibit

Abby Smith "The Cuban Missile Crisis"

1st Place Junior Individual Exhibit

Olivia Lonkart "Japanese Internment"

1st Place Junior Individual Documentary

Sydney VanSlyke "Newport Maritime"

1st Place Junior Individual Performance

Natalie Portillo "The Shirtwaist Factory Fire"

Rhode Island Labor Cash Awards:

Natalie Portillo, Individual Performance "The Shirtwaist Factory Fire"

Kaiya Aceto & Jessica Levesque Group Website "Rosie the Riveter"

Kara DosRemedios Individual Documentary "Rosie the Riveter"

Rhode Island Historical Society Cash Awards:

Sydney VanSlyke, Individual Documentary "Newport Maritime"

Rhode Island Maritime Award:

Sydney VanSlyke, Individual Documentary "Newport Maritime"

Students advancing to the National Contest held at College Park Maryland in June are:

Olivia Lonkart, Sydney VanSluke, Natalie Portillo and Abby Smith

Congrats to all of our talented and hard-working students!