

April 5th Kingian Nonviolence Workshop
for Parents & Guardians of students in grades K-5 Register today!

Are you interested in learning how to help your child address conflicts at school and at home? If so, join Robin Wildman, 5th grade teacher at Broad Rock and Executive Director of Nonviolent Schools RI for an evening filled with techniques and communal conversation.

When: Thursday April 5th, 7-8:30pm

Where: South Kingstown Neighborhood Guild, Room 12
325 Columbia Street, Wakefield, RI 02879

Space is limited and registration is required.

To register, email marghayden@gmail.com or call 617-501-7109.

Participation is free.

Donations for Nonviolent Schools RI are suggested (checks made out to Nonviolent Schools RI)

Robin Wildman has dedicated her professional and personal life to practicing and teaching Kingian Nonviolence, which focuses on developing the ability and courage to address conflicts using nonviolent strategies, while building a strong community based on the values we all have in common. Her 27 years as a public school teacher have given her the platform to train educators, administrators, and students in these nonviolent methods, and her Kingian Nonviolence curriculum is used internationally by educators and trainers of young people. She is the Executive Director of Nonviolent Schools RI, an organization that is dedicated to creating Nonviolent schools throughout Rhode Island.

(www.nonviolentschoolsri.org)