LEAD FROM YOUR STRENGTHS

Do not be swayed by what others are doing. Advice and observation may be helpful but you must not compare yourself, change your vision, or try to reinvent yourself. This is not the time!

DO YOU, NEW (NOT ...DO NEW YOU!)

Part 1 of your success story: You, your faculty, your clients, your students

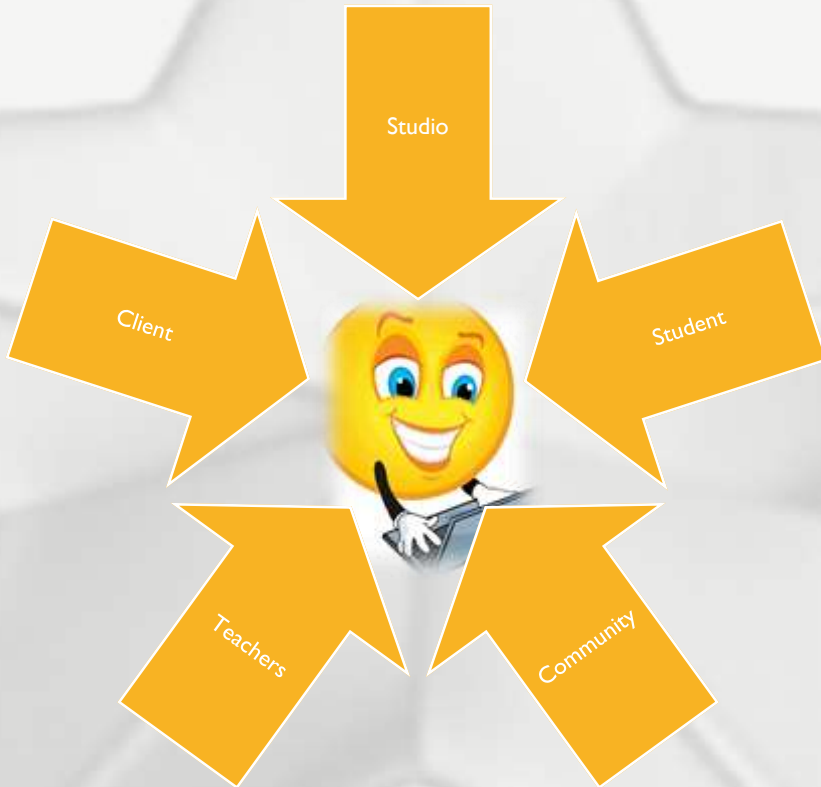

Part 2 is your integrity of vision and ability to sustain consistent value and VALUES

Part 3 is Endurance, Faith and Grace. Ask for it, receive it, and return it to others.

VOLLEY PLATFORMS: CREATE HYBRID OPPORTUNITIES FOR LEARNING

Having a variety of options for the client and student can ease the transition into your new space. We offer: Zoom, FB Activities, FB Live, PreRecorded, Music and Follow Sheets, Links to Resources, Supplemental Materials, Supplemental Content

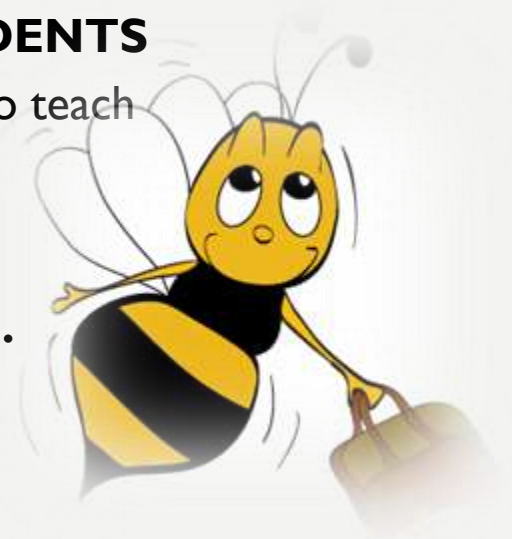

PLAN FOR GLITCHES, FROZEN SCREENS (sing “LET IT GO”), OUTAGES

Have procedures in place and communicated about what to do when this happens! For example, if your device loses power or internet, fix the problem and re-enter the class when you are ready. Text your teacher or me if you need assistance.

TRAIN YOURSELF.YOUR STAFF.YOUR CLIENTS.YOUR STUDENTS

Spend time on preparing to be successful in these platforms. Utilize technology to teach technology. Utilize technology to learn technology. Like dance...Practice!

BE FLEXIBLE

There's More than ONE-WAY to juice a lemon!

And THAT'S "THE TEA!"

A photograph of lemons and lemon slices on a dark background. In the foreground, a thick slice of a lemon is shown, revealing its internal segments and white pith. Behind it, a whole yellow lemon is visible. Two green leaves are positioned at the bottom of the frame, partially under the lemon slice. The entire scene is set against a solid black background.
