Achieving Justice in Human Trafficking Cases

Virtual Lunch & Learn August 20, 2021 12pm-1:30pm

SCAN TO REGISTER

https://us02web.zoom.us/ webinar/register/WN_M3Vf eM1GTDeB9VfaO4TGWg This training will provide an overview of various forms of trafficking and strategies to better identify cases from within the criminal justice system. Presenters will bring their lived and professional experience to provide insight into how criminal justice professionals can maximize offender accountability while minimizing re-traumatization to victims.

They will discuss Wyoming-specific laws and legal strategies to combat trafficking.

Objectives:

- Recognize indicators of human trafficking within the criminal justice system
- Make charging decisions that account for the context in which trafficking occurs
- Collaborate to hold offenders accountable while protecting victims' rights

Jane Anderson brings her expertise in prosecuting domestic violence, sexual violence, and human trafficking to her role as an Attorney Advisor with AEquitas. Prior to joining AEquitas, Jane served as a prosecutor in Miami, Florida where she tried many of the state's first human trafficking cases. In her role as a founding member of the Human Trafficking Unit, Jane developed policies to better identify and provide necessary services to trafficking victims, while ensuring offender accountability through the use of digital evidence and creative charging decisions.

Shamere McKenzie is a consultant, activist, subject matter expert on human trafficking and a sought-after award winning internationally recognized speaker and trainer. Turning her past adversities into an opportunity to liberate and protect others, Shamere has brought about social and political change in America and around the world. Shamere has a strong passion for education and policy and is the Chief Executive Officer for Sun Gate Foundation, an anti-trafficking organization that provides educational opportunities for survivors of human trafficking.

Jeri Moomaw, Founder/Executive Director, Innovations Human Trafficking
Collaborative. She is a Shoshone/Cree and a specialist on human trafficking in Indian Country. Over the past 20 years, Jeri has worked with youth and adult high-risk individuals, providing direct client services, developing and overseeing programs, creating curriculum and training content to combat commercial sexual exploitation, human trafficking, MMIP, and violence against youth and women.