REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

Making Halves Whole Again

A Symposium to Build Disaster Response Capacity in Southeastern Pennsylvania

Photo Credit: Wavian/Flickr

When disasters tear our lives apart, traditional response and relief organizations need to partner with houses of worship, neighborhood groups, and other non-profit agencies to rebuild affected communities. No one can do it alone.

Come Connect with Us!

Choose to attend one of two available sessions:

Full Day Discussion
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

or

Abbreviated Evening Session
6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Tuesday, March 10
Montgomery County
Public Safety Training Campus
1175 Conshohocken Road
Conshohocken, PA 19428

★ Seating is Limited ★

Info/Registration: https://bit.ly/2RLdoJp

Workshop leaders include local experts, as well as our distinguished guests:

Keith Adams
Executive Director, New Jersey Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster

Ken Skalitzky
Disaster Recovery Specialist, UCC Disaster Ministries

Aaron Titus
Executive Director, Crisis Cleanup

Interested but can't attend? Let us know through the Registration link

Funding and Planning Support Provided By:

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA Regional Task Force

Collaboration • Communication • Coordination • Cooperation
SEPA VOAD