Flooding and Long Term Recovery:
Construction, Coordination, and Case Management

When: Saturday, September 29, 2018, 9 – 3 pm

Where: Bear Creek Camp, 3601 Bear Creek Blvd, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702

Who Should Attend?

Work team leaders/coordinators from congregations and/or community groups

Leaders and volunteers of VOAD organizations

Municipal and County Emergency Managers

Elected officials

Anyone interested in learning more about the process of community long term recovery, especially related to the recent flooding.

Sponsored by:

Creation Care Task Force of the Northeastern PA Synod of the ELCA
Lutheran Congregational Services
Disaster Ministries of Penn Northeast Conference and PA Southeast Conference, United Church of Christ
Bear Creek Lutheran Camp
PA Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster

Cost: Free

Registration is required. Email Julia Menzo at Jmenzo@libertylutheran.org or call 215-430-1299.

Additional Information:

Need a break or respite. There will be opportunity to enjoy the beautiful setting of Bear Creek Camp and to learn about climate adaptation as we experience hotter and wetter weather.