

GROWING OUR SPIRITUAL LIVES

Reform your church, O Lord, beginning with me.

The first step in making our churches more vibrant, faithful and effective, is for each of us to cultivate our spiritual lives. Our congregations are like trees: in order to reach out with our branches and bear fruit, we must first deepen our roots in our faith.

This course on Spiritual Life will meet for three sessions at Trinity United Church of Christ, Telford, Pa., on Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. as follows:

March 28 Spiritual growth through congregational worship
April 25 Spiritual growth through personal disciplines
May 16 Spiritual growth through small groups.

This course is recommended by the continuing support group of consistory presidents that meets monthly at Faulkner's Swamp Church. It is designed with church leaders (elders and deacons) in mind but is open to anyone who feels challenged to deepen their spiritual life.

The course will be led by Dr. Charles A. Maxfield, an ordained United Church of Christ minister with rich experience in lay ministry training. He will be assisted by Constance A. Lezenby, a spiritual director (M.A. in Spiritual Direction) recognized by her Friends' Meeting as a traveling minister.

The cost of this course is $25.00 per congregation, regardless of how many participate from the congregation. However we do need the names of participants, with phone and e-mail contacts, by March 20. Checks payable to Trinity United Church of Christ, and lists of participants, should be received by the church by March 20. The address is:
