The Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society seeks applications for an executive director. This a two-year grant funded position. The Executive Director reports to the Board of Directors and works with them to carry out the current mission of the ERHS, to collect, organize, preserve and make available for research the records of the Reformed Church and the Evangelical & Reformed Church. The primary goal of this position is to develop long term financial resources to support and sustain the mission and work of the ERHS. A secondary goal is developing financial support for current programs, particularly those that will cultivate wider awareness and interest in the unique heritage of E & R traditions. This includes encouraging research and understanding among scholars and developing interpretive resources.

To apply, please submit a letter of interest, resume and three work related references to: Alison Mallin, Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society, 555 West James St., Lancaster, PA 17603, erhs@lancasterseminary.edu, 717-290-8734. Questions about this position should be directed to Rev. James Semmelroth Darnell at james@davids.ucc.net.