1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

3 (1) The United States is not a party to the 4 Rome Statute establishing the International Crimi-
5 nal Court (ICC).

6 (2) The Constitution provides the Federal Gov-
7 ernment with exclusive authority over foreign rela-
8 tions and the treatment of foreign nationals within 9 the territory of the United States.

10 (3) The arrest or detention of foreign nationals
11 on United States soil pursuant to an ICC request or 12 indictment, absent Federal authorization, could jeop-
13 ardize the foreign policy interests of the United 14 States and conflict with longstanding constitutional 15 principles.

16 (4) Law enforcement activities implicating
17 international law enforcement obligations must be 18 governed by uniform national standards.

19 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to preempt
20 State and local law enforcement from executing, honoring,
21 or enforcing any request, warrant, or indictment issued
22 by the International Criminal Court unless expressly au-
23 thorized by Federal law.

1 SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON STATE OR LOCAL ENFORCEMENT
2 OF ICC ACTIONS.

3 (a) GENERAL RULE.—No officer, employee, or agent
4 of a State, territory, the District of Columbia, or any polit-
5 ical subdivision thereof, shall—

6 (1) arrest, detain, or otherwise deprive a for-7 eign national of liberty based solely on a warrant, in-8 dictment, summons, or other process issued by the 9 International Criminal Court;

10 (2) cooperate with, or provide assistance to, the 11 International Criminal Court in effectuating such an 12 arrest or detention; or

13 (3) use any funds, facilities, personnel, or 14 equipment to carry out any action described in para-
15 graph (1) or (2).

16 (b) EXCEPTION.—The prohibitions in subsection (a)
17 shall not apply if—

18 (1) Congress enacts legislation expressly au-
19 thorizing cooperation with the International Crimi-
20 nal Court in a specific case; or

21 (2) the President certifies to Congress that 22 such cooperation is essential to a declared national 23 security interest and issues a specific written author-
24 ization.

1   SEC. 4. PREEMPTION.

2           This Act supersedes any State or local law, policy,
3 or regulation that permits, requires, or authorizes any ac-
4 tion inconsistent with this Act.

5   SEC. 5. SEVERABILITY.

6           If any provision of this Act, or the application of a
7 provision to any person or circumstance, is held to be un-
8 constitutional, the remainder of the Act and the applica-
9 tion of the provisions to any other person or circumstance
10 shall not be affected.
