

Dear friends of the Agathon Institute,

We are 1 month away from our 4th High School Summer Program, taking place in the School of Business at St. John Fisher U., from Monday June 17 through Thursday June 20 (9am-1pm).

The program consists of a series of talks and discussions led by experts in philosophy and theology in a friendly environment. We provide snacks and lunch for the students and those that complete the program receive a printed certificate.

The agenda for this year is as follows:

Monday, June 17th

9 am: Introduction [Dr. Jamie Boulding (leader, Witherspoon Institute, Princeton) & Dr. Fernando Ontiveros]

10 am: Why Do We Work? (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

11 am: Plato on Work and Flourishing (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

Tuesday, June 18th

9 am: Josef Pieper on Work and Leisure (Dr. Matthew Kuhner, Academic Dean, St. Bernard's)

10 am: Hannah Arendt on Work and Human Nature (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

11 am: What Does it Mean to be Human? (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

Wednesday, June 19th

9 am: Thomas Aquinas on the Meaning of Work (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

10 am: Pope John Paul II on the Dignity of Work (Dr. Alex Montes, Postdoctoral Researcher, U of R)

11 am: What is Dignity? (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

Thursday, June 20th

9 am: Aristotle on Happiness, Virtue, and the Purpose of Life (Dr. Machessa Samz, Assistant Professor, NAZ)

10 am: What Should We Work On? (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

11 am: The Future of Work (Dr. Jamie Boulding)

For more information and to register, please go to our website.

<https://www.agathoninstitute.org/general-8>

Thanks to support from our donors, we are able to provide scholarships for students that request it.

Rising 9th graders and graduating 12th grades are welcome to apply.

Please help us share this message with families that may be interested.

Thank you for your support!

Fernando Ontiveros

Agathon Institute