

EPIPHANY 2021 WORSHIP VIDEO

Greeting

Rev. Chad Abbott

Call To Worship

*Call to Worship written by Sarah Are/used with permission and license from Sanctified Art LLC/

Rebecca Braganza and Rev. Dr. Monica Ouellette

One: The Magi had a dream.

All: They dreamed of a Messiah.
They dreamed of just rulers.
They dreamed of a new day for all people.

One: The Magi had a dream,
and this dream led them to action.

All: They journeyed to unknown places.
They followed a star. They walked for days to get to Jesus.

One: So may we be like the Magi,

All: May our dreams inspire action.
May we worship the one true God. Amen.

Prayer Of Illumination

Rev. Nikki Shaw

God of the Milky Way,
We, like the Magi, are walking toward you.
One foot in front of the other, we are walking toward you.
It is our very prayer to move your way.
So if you can, leave the light on and the front door unlocked.
Leave a fire in the hearth and food on the stove.
And when we start to get lost or doubt our dreams,
Give us the will to persevere.
We are walking toward you, O God.
So like the parent that throws open the door,
Open the door to us through this text.
Amen.

Scripture Reading Matthew 2: 1-12, NRSV

Lynnette Schuepbach

2 In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, 2 asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising and have come to pay him homage.” 3 When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; 4 and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.

5 They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

6 ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’”

7 Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. 8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.” 9 When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. 10 When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. 11 On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Invitation to the Table

Invitation to the Table written by Sarah Are/used with permission and license from Sanctified Art LLC/sanctifiedart.org

Can you remember the first time you saw a shooting star, or the first time you saw the Milky Way?
There is something so shockingly holy about it.
One minute it's a normal night,
the next minute the sky is taking your breath away.

I feel that same sense of awe here at this Table.
For one minute we are moving through our day to day lives,
And the next we're being told that this Table has room for everything,
And that at this Table all can be fed.
Where else in the world do we hear those messages?
It can take our breath away.

So today you will be invited,
as you always are, to come to this Table.
And you are not invited
because of what you have or have not done.
You cannot be invited because you're a good Christian or a good person.
You are invited, simply because you belong to God,
and that is enough.

So come to this Table.
Come with your questions,
and your doubts, and your fears.
Come with your hope, your awe,
and your love for the world.

Come with all of you,
authentically and honestly.
For God is undoubtedly at this Table,
and God is inviting you.
Let us pray. . .

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

adapted Great Prayer of Thanksgiving originally written by Sarah Are/used with permission and license from Sanctified Art LLC/sanctifiedart.org

God of starlight,
There has always been something holy about stars for us. We wish on them.
We look for them.
We celebrate when we see them
streaking across the sky on summer nights.
We map out their designs,
and consider glimpses of the Milky Way holy enough for bare feet.

There has always been something holy about stars. We know that.
You know that.
The Magi must have known that.

So today we come to you in prayer, trusting that if you can paint the stars in the sky,
Then surely you can hear us over the noise.

So first we pray for people wishing on stars:
We pray for those for whom 2020
was a year full of hospital rooms and isolation.
We pray for those who lost love in 2020.
We pray for those who lost life in 2020.
We pray for those who lost a job, a home, or a sense of hope in 2020.
We pray for parents forced to homeschool children in 2020,
And for children who missed their friends in 2020.
We pray for the milestones
canceled in 2020,

And for the breath that was stolen in 2020.

However, at the same time,
We also say a prayer of gratitude for all the stars you have left for us this last year—
The signs and mile markers of hope on the horizon.

For example, we could not have survived without the birthday parades and the sidewalk chalk.
And oh how we needed the slower schedule,
and the family around dinner tables.
We thank you for the gifts of technology, backyard gardening, and sourdough bread.
We thank you for every variety of essential workers,
from grocery store clerks and teachers,
to internet technicians and doctors.
We thank you for the quiet that came with less cars on the road and less planes in the sky.
We thank you for protesters demanding justice and for leaders like the late John Lewis who refused to give up on a broken system.
In so many ways, 2020 was a turbulent year,
and in so many ways, you were there,
leaving stars in the sky,
painting hope on the horizon.

So today, in this new year,
we ask that once more you would give us a sign.
Pour out a double portion of your Spirit
on this bread and cup,
and on our star words,
So that these ordinary objects might provide us a glimpse of something more.

For like the Magi,
we are seeking you.
Like the Magi,
we are looking up.
Like the Magi,
we just need a sign.
Guide our feet.
Show up in the mundane and the extraordinary. Be in the stars in the sky and in our everyday lives.
We are hopeful, O God.
We are hopeful as the confidence of children wishing on stars. Amen.
