PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God,
You have shown us what is good and called us to live with compassion and justice.
Yet we confess that, like the rich man,
we often close our eyes to the suffering at our gates.
We feast while others hunger.
We pass by the wounded and the weary,
numb to their cries, blind to their humanity.
Forgive us, Lord, for our indifference and our hardened hearts.
Break through our selfishness with the light of your truth.
Open our hearts to love as you love, and give us courage to act with justice, generosity, and grace.
