Welcome To First Presbyterian!

We are delighted that you are joining us for worship today! We are a curious, inclusive, and diverse gathering of imperfect people united by our common hope in Jesus Christ. Through worship, study, and service we seek to know and show the transformative love of God found in the pages of scripture and revealed in the person of Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, know that you are welcome here.

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Timothy T. Boggess
Pastor

After the fair, the Membership & Fellowship committee invites you to a potluck brunch in Fellowship Hall. Everyone can contribute by bringing food, maybe something from the country of your heritage. Please bring your tasty dish according to the category of your last name. A–I, breads, muffins, coffee cakes; J–Q, main dishes or proteins such as casseroles, quiches, ham, tofu; R–Z, fruits and salads. Please bring your dish to Fellowship Hall before the 10:00 a.m. service.

Meet Anita Taylor from CEPAD Thursday, October 5 at 6:30 p.m. in the Parlor

Anita, from CEPAD (Coalition of Protestant Churches of Nicaragua) will be here to tell us more about the partnership FPC has with CEPAD and the transforming work that is happening in Nicaragua.

CEPAD provides faith-based training to people in rural Nicaraguan villages through programs in leadership training, sustainable agriculture, economic development, and community organization so they can break the cycle of hunger and poverty to support themselves and their families. In past years several members of FPC have traveled to Nicaragua on mission trips to learn and experience the work CEPAD is doing.

We hope to see you there. ~ FPC mission committee
