PRAYER OF CONFESSION		Charlie and Wells Weitekamp

Holy and righteous God,
You have called us to be the salt of the earth
and the light of the world,
yet we confess that too often we lose our distinctiveness.
We grow comfortable with the patterns of this world,
hiding our faith when it feels inconvenient
and dimming the light you have placed within us.
Forgive us.
Do not let our witness lose its savor.
Rekindle in us a passion for goodness
that points others toward you.
Shape us into a people whose lives shine
with humility, integrity, and compassion,
so that all may see and give glory to you.

(a moment for silent reflection)
