PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Charlie and Wells Weitekamp

Faithful God,
you have led us through waters of deliverance
and guided us through wilderness places,
yet we confess how quickly we forget your goodness.
Like your people Israel,
we grumble when the journey is difficult.
We complain when our comfort is disturbed.
We cling to the security of what was,
even when you are leading us toward something new.
Teach us to receive our daily bread with gratitude.
Give us patience when the path ahead is uncertain
and faith to trust you one day at a time.
