

MOVES.....Continued

Antonio Lima assumes new role as Statewide Manager of Emerging Adults

Antonio Lima has been named Statewide Manager of Emerging Adults, a new position established within the Massachusetts Probation Service (MPS). Mr. Lima first joined MPS as a Brockton District Court Probation Officer in 1996. In 2001, he was hired as a Probation Officer in Charge at the then Norfolk County Community Corrections Center. The centers have since been renamed the Community Justice Support Centers (CJSC's). Mr. Lima has served as POIC at the former New Bedford Juvenile Resource Center and the Taunton CCC. He held the position of Senior Probation Officer In Charge at Bristol Superior Court. Mr. Lima earned a law degree from the University of Massachusetts School of Law; a Master of Science degree from Northeastern University; and a Bachelor's degree in Spanish and Political Science from the University of Massachusetts-Dartmouth.

Tonie Ryan is MPS' Deputy Commissioner-Legal Unit

Tonie Ryan is the new Deputy Commissioner of the Legal Division. Deputy Commissioner Ryan first joined MPS as an Administrative Attorney in the Office of the Commissioner of Probation's Legal Department in September 2022. Prior to her appointment with MPS, Ms. Ryan held the positions of Assistant Attorney General for both the Office of the Attorney General's Trial Division and the Boston Municipal Court. Deputy Commissioner Ryan earned a Juris Doctorate from Rutgers University School of Law and a Bachelor's degree in Behavioral Science from the University of California.

Mark Ellis is new investigator

MPS Investigator in the Office of the Commissioner of Probation. Mr. Ellis comes to us with many years of investigator experience as an Assistant Special Agent in Charge in the Office of the US Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration in Massachusetts and New Jersey and as a General Investigator for the Internal Revenue Service. Mr. Ellis holds a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Westfield State College.

Kimberly D'Archangelo is named Region 3 Regional Supervisor

Kimberly D'Arcangelo is named the Regional Supervisor for Region 3. Ms. D'Arcangelo joined the Massachusetts Probation Service in September 1998 as an Associate Probation Officer in the Lowell District Court. Two years later, Ms. D'Arcangelo was promoted to Probation Officer in the Lawrence District Court. In June 2016, she was named Middlesex Superior Court Assistant Chief Probation

Officer. In October 2019, she was appointed Chief Probation Officer at Middlesex Superior Court where she served until her recent appointment.

Ms. D'Arcangelo holds an MA in Community and Social Psychology from UMASS Lowell as well as a Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Westfield University. Ms. D'Arcangelo's area of coverage includes Ayer District, Cambridge District, Concord District, Gloucester District, Haverhill District, Lawrence District, Lowell District, Lynn District, Malden District, Newburyport/Ipswich District, Newton District, Peabody District, Salem District, Somerville District, Waltham District, and Woburn District.