

PREPARING TOMORROW'S LEADERS IN HEALTH

The Commonwealth Fund Fellowship in Minority Health Policy at Harvard University

Fellowship Opportunity 2022-2023

At Harvard Medical School—The Commonwealth Fund Fellowship in Minority Health Policy at Harvard University is a one-year, degree-granting, full-time program starting July 2022, designed to prepare physicians, particularly physicians from groups underrepresented in medicine, to become leaders who improve the health of disadvantaged and vulnerable populations through transforming health care delivery systems and promoting innovation in policies, practices, and programs that address health equity and the social determinants of health. The program offers intensive study in health policy, public health, and management. Fellows complete academic work leading to a Master of Public Health degree at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health or a Master of Public Administration degree at the Harvard Kennedy School. Fellows also participate in leadership forums and seminars with nationally recognized leaders in health care delivery systems, minority health, and health policy.

Qualifications: BC/BE required; experience in addressing health needs of vulnerable populations; interest in health policy; interest in transforming health care delivery systems for vulnerable populations; U.S. citizenship or U.S. permanent residency.
