June 2017

Dear Friends:

This year's fall event is full of very special things:

First, its central theme is how Macomb County Habitat for Humanity serves its veterans. Not only will Andiamo, Warren (our venue this year) be filled with military decorations and Christmas card stations for you to write words of encouragement to a soldier, but our speaker will be a military veteran who lost everything before finding Habitat and his way back HOME.

The second reason you will want to join us is for the entertainment. While other years have featured José Feliciano, Amy Grant, Aaron Neville and many famous Motown groups, this year we will hear from country superstar, John Michael Montgomery, who will be singing his signature song, "Letters From Home" - one of the most moving tributes to the connection between soldiers and their families ever recorded.

Between the words of our vet and the songs from our star, this will be the best evening you have spent in a very long time.

God bless you and God bless America.
