Greetings!

Please share the details below for the 2020 IRTS Summer Fellowship Program! Accepted students have the opportunity to participate in an exciting, 9-week media Fellowship in New York City that includes all-expenses paid travel & accommodations, a living stipend, and an internship at a top media company where their skills and interests align.

The IRTS Summer Fellowship Program has had a key role in launching the careers of top professionals in the media business for more than 45 years. This highly competitive program introduces students to a myriad of opportunities within the media industry. Additionally, selected individuals gain invaluable experience interning at top companies and networking with executives from across the industry.

Accomplished students from all majors (including communications, liberal arts, computer science, business, marketing, math, etc.) are encouraged to apply.

For full eligibility information and further details, including previous internship placements and testimonials, please follow this link:

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM DETAILS

The IRTS Summer Fellowship Program is the cornerstone program of the IRTS Foundation. Often referred to as a "media boot camp," this highly selective program teaches a talented group of up-and-coming media professionals the realities of the business world through an all-expense-paid internship in New York City, which includes practical experience and career-planning advice.

Those selected for the Fellowship receive:

- Round trip travel to and from NYC (air, train, or driving reimbursement)
- Housing in downtown Manhattan in a shared suite setting
- A living allowance to defray cost of food and personal expenses
- A full-time internship at a top media company that aligns with a student's interests and career goals
- Weekly events including panel discussions, company visits and executive Q&A sessions
- The IRTS Foundation also provides extensive career counseling and networking opportunities to ensure that each Fellow makes the most of their New York experience!
