Communication from Blue Skies
Volunteer / Hurricane Coordinator
Erin S. Hudson:

Details are still unclear as to the true impact on Windmark but what is clear is the devastation and impact on the surrounding area of Port St. Joe and Mexico Beach. There are currently 2 different needs:

- Resources for the community of Port St. Joe & Mexico Beach
- Resources and people to help get Blue Skies supplies back to Atlanta.

Support the communities of Port St. Joe & Mexico Beach:

- Toothbrush/toothpaste
- Deodorant
- Soap
- Baby Wipes
- Hand Sanitizer
- Paper Towels/Toilet paper
- Diapers
- Advil/Tylenol - children and adult
- Monetary donations - visit classy.org page on Facebook & Instagram or Venmo at blueskies-1

Resources & support to get Blue Skies supplies/equipment back to Atlanta:

- Volunteers willing to take a day or 2 to drive down to Port St. Joe with trailers to gather supplies (please email Erin Hudson at eshudson@mac.com if you would like to help)
- Rental space/POD to bring supplies back to for period of time (send email to eshudson@mac.com if you have space that Blue Skies can use)
- Rental of trailers
- Monetary donations to help with cost of rental space, rental of trailers, gas to drive supplies down for Port St. Joe as well as bringing back Blue Skies supplies and equipment - visit classy.org page on Facebook & Instagram or Venmo at blueskies-1

Finally and most importantly, we ask for your prayers for the ministry. It's hard to ask for prayers when we know that so many lost everything. So we ask this knowing and trusting the Lord's love and provision for the ministry. There will be additional expenses that we will incur as well as obstacles of timing and rebuilding and repairing any parts of Windmark & Rish Park that have been impacted. We know the Lord goes before us in this and trust His ways. We would love the additional covering in prayer.
