Content Outline
EDPD 526 and EDPD 527 together, include a study of the 25 Best Practices for Teachers of Children of Poverty listed below. EDPD 526 includes those topics highlighted in green; EDPD 527 includes those topics highlighted in yellow.
Foundations for Learning
F1. Neuroscience and the classroom.
F2. Financial poverty and a look at local data.
F3. Why financial poverty matters.
F4. The impact of resources and poverty redefined.
F5. Play Spent, a poverty and low-income simulation.
F6. Equitable funding and SC schools.
F7. Teachers and schools can matter more.
F8. Webinar series.
How? Develop high-quality, meaningful relationships.
1. Build relationships.
2. Decrease stress.
3. Increase status.
4. Instill a sense of hope.
5. Use effective proactive guidance strategies.
6. Employ 'ME-oriented' best practices all day every day.
7. Understand the goals of student behaviors.
How? Understand and support the health needs of students.
8. Support health needs.
How? Cultivate family and community partnerships.
9. Implement a results-driven partnership plan.
How? Align classroom instruction and assessment with required, tested standards.
10. Use the RBT or Webb's DOK to unpack standards and to align instruction.
How? Motivate students' interest in learning.
 Motivate the unmotivated – Increase value and expectancy of success.
12. Promote a growth mindset rather than a fixed mindset.
How? Build background knowledge and grow the brain.
13. Build background knowledge in all content areas.
14. Grow executive functions.
15. Build memory trace.
16. Cultivate healthy emotional brains and teach soft skills and hidden rules of school.
How? Design and deliver purposeful instruction.
17. Purposefully teach – know the goal and reach rigor through active, deep and engaging activities.
18. Explicitly teach specific skills—use formats, templates, models, and rubrics.
19. Use questioning strategically.
20. Use (formative) feedback and data to drive instruction.
21. Make learning fun; capitalize on the power of dopamine.
22. Accommodate.
23. Integrate the ARTS.
24. Hold high expectations for all students – all means ALL!
How? Benefit from strong and supportive school leadership.
25. Be a leader (or a follower).
Methods of Presentation
Each class will be a combination of demonstration/modeling, discussion, and direct teaching of techniques followed by representations by graduate students who will have opportunities to work independently and collaboratively with colleagues. Peer coaching and peer review techniques will be used to facilitate instruction, learning and assessment. Face-to-face, synchronous, and asynchronous delivery methods may be used.

Course Requirements

- 1. Attendance and participation in all classes and related activities. Students are expected to be in class at the beginning of the stated class time and to stay through the entire class period. Excessive tardiness may result in a student's removal from the class.
- 2. Completion of required readings/preparations before class dates indicated on schedule.
- 3. Successful completion of all assignments/projects.

Course Policies and Dispositions

Professional Behavior and Norms

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION ATTENDANCE POLICY: "If a student is absent more than 15% of the total number of class meetings, the course instructor has the right to withdraw the student from the course. Instructors may choose to allow students to make up class time to avoid being withdrawn from the course; however, this is solely the discretion of the course instructor. Class make up time must be scheduled with the instructor ahead of time, at his or her convenience, and must be supervised by the instructor." NOTE: The schedule and design of this course will not allow late or make-up work.

Dispositions are as important as academic work. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. This includes adhering to the FMU attendance policy, punctuality for all classes and meetings, because late arrivals to class are a disruption and a diversion from the class session already in progress [note: two tardies/early departures equal one absence], and the active cultivation of positive and respectful professional relationships with all class members.

All students have the right to learn in a respectful environment and the instructor has the right to teach in a respectful environment. Engaging in personal conversations, preparing assignments for another class, checking cell phones, emails, or text messages, or otherwise being inattentive distracts other class participants, including the professor, and will not be tolerated. It is expected that all students participate in class appropriately.

Any failure to demonstrate appropriate professional dispositions will result in disciplinary actions that comply with FMU School of Education policies that may include withdrawal from the course.

Assignment Deadlines
The Francis Marion University School of Education imposes strict deadlines for grade submission. Therefore, late assignments cannot be accepted.

Assignments and Assessments –

The student will compile a portfolio comprised of the assignments listed below:

The student will complie a portiono comprised of the assignments listed below:
#	Activity Description
1	Sketch Notes Journal Entries : The student will complete a personal journal that documents all class activities. Each entry must be scanned or photographed and submitted electronically. Specific instructions and examples are included in the recorded videos provided to students.
2	Low-Stakes Quizzes : The student will successfully complete a low-stakes, online quiz associated with each lesson. Quizzes are generally comprised of 5 questions and may be taken online at the conclusion of the video lesson. Quizzes may be taken more than once to achieve the required 80% mastery.
3	 Final Reflection: "I used to think and now I think": The student will complete a final reflection that provides an opportunity to address ways in which thinking has changed as a result of the focused study and activities of this course. Specific instructions and examples are included in the recorded videos provided to students.
