Worship
October 2026

At the heart of any faith community is the reality of worship. How and when depends on tradition, context, belief, sacred writings. For those in the Christian tradition, most will have services on a Sunday morning. Even then though, because of tradition, context, belief, and sacred writings, some have services on Saturday evening, Saturday morning, Wednesday evening, daily gatherings.

Because of tradition, context, belief, sacred writings, some traditions have formal liturgies. Some orders are projected on screens. Some have paper bulletins. Some have a free form style. Some are led by people in robes, stoles, albs, cintures, chasubles. Some are led by people in “Sunday” dress.

Whatever the when, how and who, worship stands at the center of a faith community. When we gather–whenever we gather–we offer our worship to God. Søren Kierkegaard viewed worship as "God as the audience"--the congregation serves as the active performers, worship leaders are the prompters and God is the sole recipient and audience. This view guards against the view of worship as concert or lecture. One valid critique is that Kierkegaard’s view keeps God as a passive spectator.

When we gather for worship, I expect that God is present and that God is actively participating! I also believe that God is the sole focus of our worship. Every part of our worship connects to the One who has created us, names us, and claims us. Every part of our worship gives us the opportunity to draw closer to God, to confess the ways we have separated ourselves from God, and examine the ways God is calling us to live our daily lives.

This is a lot for a weekly gathering to hold. And yet, it is, for me, a rehearsal for weekly living. Our worship does not end when we leave the Sanctuary on a Sunday. It is in fact just the beginning! How do we live day to day drawing closer to God, confessing the ways we have separated ourselves from God, examining the ways God is calling us to live?

As you might be able to tell, I’ve been thinking a lot about worship recently–in part because our young people are planning worship for Reformation Sunday. We’re also hosting a worship leadership training event on October 11 for anyone interested in learning the ways you can participate in worship. For those who would like to know more, please fill out the form found here.

At the heart of any faith community is the reality of worship. Be it the Sunday rehearsal or the through the week living, what does worship mean for you?

Blessings,
Pastor Sharon

Minutes: September 14, 2026, Meeting of Congregation Council
RLC Conference Room

Council Members Present in Person: Steve Bott, Treasurer; David Broderdorf; Pastor Sharon Core; Lee Cronin; Sabine Detweiler, Vice-President; Megan Kratz; Karen Miller, President; Anna P., Youth Member Representative; Tyler Posey

Council Members Present via Zoom: None

Council Members Absent Excused: Annabelle Allard; Sara Egeland; Chris Hernadi, Secretary; Gene Morrow

Call to order. Karen Miller called the meeting to order at 7:34.

Opening Devotions. Pastor Core led the opening devotions with a passage from Psalm 42 and the poem The Well by Kenneth Steven. Building on the theme in the Psalm of longing for God, Council reflected on what we long for. Then Council compared the theme of longing to the poem, in which the author comes upon a well and how the experience of drinking from it has changed his life forever. We reflected on how the Psalm and the poem compare to one another.

Approval of Minutes. Minutes from the meeting were previously approved by email.

Adoption of Agenda. The agenda, as emailed in advance of the meeting, was approved by the Council.

Executive Committee Summary. The Executive Committee met on September 1 and talked about the items on tonight's agenda.

Treasurer's Report. Treasurer Steve Bott presented the 2026 Financial Summary through August 31. As in previous months, the financials show that expenses exceeded receipts. Including the August numbers, the shortfall amounts to $45,366. It was noted that actual expenses were lower than budgeted, but substantially lower contributions primarily accounted for the shortfall.

Discussion Item: Call Committee Progress. Karen Miller gave Council an update on the Call Committee's progress. The Ministry Site Profile was sent to the Synod and posted in June, but so far, there have been no possible candidates. Pastor Amy is looking at the profiles for potential candidates and will notify the Call Committee when one is identified.

In the meantime, Council agreed that a message in the announcements and an email should be prepared and sent to the congregation with an update on the status.

Discussion Item: Stewardship Plans for Pledge Period. The Stewardship Committee has developed a plan for an upcoming pledge month this fall to encourage an increase in financial giving. The activities will kick off with "Celebration Sunday" on September 27 and include Temple Talks by various members of the congregation on why we give. Pledge cards will be made available for financial giving. From then on, there will be pledge related emails every week with varying Bible focused subjects related to pledging. The final Sunday for these activities is October 18.

Discussion Item: Building Dedication Weekend. Karen Miller reported on the plans for a weekend to celebrate the progress on the building project. On October 3, the events will begin with a reception in the Crossroads followed by a service of dedication in the Sanctuary. The congregation will be given the opportunity to see the newly renovated space. On October 4, there will be coffee and treats between the services.

Council was encouraged to invite members to attend, in particular those who haven't come to worship in a while and might enjoy seeing what has been happening at Redeemer.

Discussion and Approval Item: Building Project Status. Karen Miller gave Council an update on the building project, summarizing the information Rob Wenk had set out in his email to the congregation dated September 2.

The Columbarium project has faced a number of unexpected issues and delays. The current, most significant issue is a considerable rise in the cost of building the Columbarium.

As a result, the responsible parties have looked for an alternative, less costly approach. Rather than building a custom-built Columbarium in its own location, a niche structure prebuilt by the manufacturer could be placed into the existing Memorial Garden. The niches for the ashes and the granite cover plates with the inscriptions would be the same.

Long term, the niche structure could either stay in the Memorial Garden or be moved to the new Columbarium location when that is built. The advantages of this approach are that we can move forward at a lower cost short term while maintaining the long-term plan of the original structure.

Several congregation members responded to the email outlining the proposed adjusted course of action. The vast majority responded favorably.

No one attended the Q & A session that was offered on Sunday, September 13.

Karen Miller made the motion to move forward with the alternative approach as outlined above. Megan Kratz seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Discussion Item: Personnel Committee. Several members of the Personnel Committee are coming to the end of their term. Council was asked for suggestions who might be suitable candidates to fill the vacant positions.

Discussion Item: Worship and Music. Pastor Sharon informed Council on a planned training day on October 11 for volunteer positions before and during service. This includes greeters, ushers, crucifers, assistant ministers and readers.

Anyone interested in performing any of these duties will have the opportunity to learn what the different positions include and have the chance to practice. The event will begin with a lunch.

Discussion Item: Summer Schedule Follow up. Karen Miller asked Council for feedback on the summer schedule and a discussion ensued on whether some of these adjustments could be continued. For example, moving the musicians to the front of the church during the contemporary service was well received, as were the adult learning opportunities.

Pastor Core shared that having more time to transition between services had been helpful.

Discussion Item: Youth Topics. Confirmation will be held on October 25 and the youth will participate in this service. Preparations and details are still underway. Confirmation dinner will take place the Sunday preceding Confirmation, October 18.

A second Confirmation teacher is still needed to teach the current confirmation class. Paula Green has volunteered to teach, but a second could not be found. Instead, the plan is to find volunteers from the congregation who are willing to teach a specific topic on a given Sunday.

The Gathering will take place in June 2027 in Minneapolis. There will be an information meeting on September 27 and registration closing on October 21.

Other Discussion Items: Nametag Project: Grace Sweeney and Karen Miller are planning to be present between services on October 4 and 11 to take photos, gather current phone numbers and email addresses of congregation members to include updated information in the new church directory.

Swag for visitors and new members: The Membership Outreach Committee is meeting next week to discuss possibly producing swag (mugs, stickers etc.) to hand out to visitors and new members.

Council Turnover: Annabelle Allard resigned from Council effective immediately due to time constraints and will focus only on youth matters going forward.

Lee Cronin will complete her term but not continue for a further term.

Karen Miller informed Council that a Nominating Committee will be formed to fill the two vacant spots.

New Business: Discussion and Approval Item - Opening of Credit Card Account for Staff. Karen Miller put forward the motion to approve the opening of a credit card account with ELCA Federal Credit Union for use by designated staff to conduct church business. Steve Bott seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Prior E-mail Discussion and Approval Item: Endowment Grant. On July 28, David Broderdorf emailed the Council with the Endowment Committee's recommendation to make a $6,000 donation to be distributed equally among three charities supported by the Youth Mission Trip: Diaper Bank of North Carolina ($2,000), Brunswick County Senior Center ($2,000), and Pender County Christian Services ($2,000). In the email discussion, David noted that Grace Sweeney, Denise Augustenborg, and Mary Eckberg provided valuable insights into these groups and validated the proposed donations. It was further noted in discussion that significant income growth of the fund and the desire to equally support the lead three charities served as justification to increase the donation amount from the customary $5,000 to $6,000.

David Broderdorf made the motion to accept the Endowment Committee's recommendation. Karen Miller seconded. The motion passed unanimously by Council on August 14.

Close with Prayer and adjourn at 9:40

Upcoming Dates:
Celebration Sunday for Pledge Period, September 27
Dedication Weekend, October 3 and 4
Executive Committee Meeting, October 7
Next Meeting of Council, October 12
Blessing of the Animals, October 18

HAPPENING AT REDEEMER

Update from Call Committee

Most munificent blessings and halcyon salutations, siblings! Since we last "talked", your Call Committee has been praying, preparing, and creatively participating with the DC Metro Synod to identify candidates seeking a call. Alas, we have thus far been unsuccessful in finding that right pastor, at the right time, in the right place, but we remain positive in the knowledge the Lord will shepherd that right pastor, to our right place, on His chosen time to us. As we remain ready to interview candidates, armed with our congregational vision, priorities, and requirements, and an irrepressible spirit, we ask for your continued prayers and moral support.

Financial Stewardship at Redeemer Update

The summary below shows an increase of $2,689 in the shortfall during the month of August compared to the amount at the end of July. We're entering the last three months of our budget year. May the Holy Spirit continue to challenge all of us to share our financial gifts as we are able for the work inside Redeemer and in the community beyond our walls.

Current year through 8/31/26
	Actual	Budget
Total Receipts*	$ 680,211	$ 773,635
Total Expenses	$ 725,577	$ 773,635
Surplus (Shortfall)	$ (45,366)
*Includes $10,000 roll-over from 2025

Thanks to the Scouts

A big thank you to Eagle Scout Candidate Michael Ingulli for initiating and leading the restriping of our parking lot. Michael and many members of Redeemer's Scout Troop 1916 spent a Friday and Saturday in September working on our parking lot. We appreciate all of their efforts and hard work.

Memorializing the Enslaved in Arlington, 1669-1865
Redeemer Social Justice & Equity Book Club is sponsoring a Stumbling Stone!

The Arlington Historical Society and the Black Heritage Museum of Arlington invite you to the unveiling of "Stumbling Stones." These bronze markers commemorate the lives of the enslaved people who helped build our county (and our country). The markers are placed in the sidewalk at the last known location where these enslaved people lived. Memorializing the Enslaved in Arlington's research has revealed over 2,750 enslaved people and identified 1,045 by name.

Please join us for the Dedication Ceremony honoring two once enslaved individuals: Nan and her daughter Bess who appeared in Francis Ripplett's will being bequeathed to his wife Elizabeth in 1757.

We will be honoring them at 11:00 am. Saturday, October 3, 2026 at the Intersection in front of Arlington Central Public Library. To learn more, please go to this link.

If you did not receive an email to access the new directory, please contact grace@redeemermclean.org to ensure we have the most up-to-date contact information.

Please Support Britepaths as part of our Fall Donation Drive
Through October 13

We are collecting funds along with toothbrushes and toothpaste which will assist our Fairfax County neighbors in need through Britepaths' Emergency Food Support program. Every donation directly assists individuals and families facing temporary crises by providing them with necessary household and personal hygiene products and a gift card for groceries. This crucial support allows recipients to purchase essential groceries and find relief during their challenging times, allowing them to focus on stabilizing their situation. Your contribution ensures we can continue to provide timely assistance to those experiencing hardship in our community.

A financial donation can be made one of three ways: 1) donation envelope with "Britepaths" on your envelope, 2) check with Britepaths in the memo line. or 3) on-line giving via https://secure.myvanco.com/L-ZCTK/home. Toothbrushes/toothpaste to add to the Britepaths Snap Gap Pantry will be collected in the Crossroads.

Rise Against Hunger
November 7

The next Rise Against Hunger meal-packaging event will be on Saturday, November 7th at Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in McLean. It is possible that this year 4 million meals since the first event in 2010 can be packaged. That would require $99,000 to pay for 247,536 meals and 1200 volunteers to package them. It seems like a lot, but with your help, mountains have been moved before, and with your continued support, they can be again again.

Now is the time to go to the event page and make a donation and/or register to volunteer at the event. There will be 3 shifts on November 7 beginning at 8:00 AM, 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM. There is also a setup shift on Friday evening, November 6 beginning at 4:00. There are jobs for volunteers from age 4 to age 104.

Donations can not only be made on the registration page, but through Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, or by mailing a check to McLean Community Rise Against Hunger Events, PO Box 150, McLean VA 22101.

Please follow McLean Community Rise Against Hunger Events on Facebook.
