

SPRING BREAK FUN!

Opera Iowa: Sid the Serpent Who Wanted to Sing

Monday, March 13

9:15 am: Workshop

10:00 am: Performance

Sid the Serpent Who Wanted to Sing is the story of a serpent in the circus who longs for more than just slithering in and out of his basket—he wants to sing! His efforts to find a singing style suitable to a snake are hilarious and this wonderful little opera has become our most requested opera for children! In addition to this performance, an in-person workshop will be held prior to the performance.

Iowa State University Insect Zoo

Tuesday, March 14

10:00 am – 2:00 pm

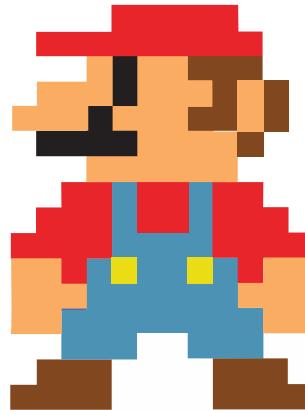

Do you love bugs? Come see, touch, and learn about all kinds of awesome insects with the Iowa State University Department of Entomology Insect Zoo! You'll meet insects found in Iowa and throughout the world.

Super Mario Day!

Wednesday, March 15

10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Speed-run your way over to the Family Museum and join us for some Super Mario Fun! Watch out for Goombas and collect coins in our interactive obstacle course, get your own Mario mustache, stop by a photo op, and meet a few of your favorite characters from the games. There will be lots to do as we celebrate our favorite plumber!

Super Science with Mr. Glenn!

Thursday, March 16

Science Shows: 10:00 am and 1:00 pm

Trebuchet Demos: 11:00 am and 2:00 pm

Explore the wonder of science through exciting and educational science demonstrations with our very own Mr. Glenn! He will show our guests that learning about complex concepts doesn't have to be boring – it can be surprisingly fun! Then, join us outside as we demonstrate the amazing wonder that is the trebuchet! Our staff built a large trebuchet, and we are ready to fling things across the parking lot! What are we going to send through the air? Come find out!

Jim Gill in Concert

Friday, March 17

Concert: 10:30 am

Make Green Slime for St. Patrick's Day: 12:30 – 3:00 pm

Jim Gill, an award-winning musician and author, offers more than a show – each concert is an opportunity for family play! In concert, Jim strums energetic rhythms on his banjo while everyone claps, sings, dances, and even sneezes along to silly and inspiring musical games! Then, to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, we will be making green slime in the afternoon!

All events are included with paid admission thanks to our sponsor!
