

Buprenorphine Prescribing "Crash Course"

June 8, 7:00 p.m.

- 1.) Discuss the pharmacology of Buprenorphine
- 2.) Discuss regulatory changes in how Buprenorphine can be prescribed
- 3.) Describe Buprenorphine preparations, dosing, and adverse reactions
- 4.) Describe appropriate monitoring/body fluid toxicology testing

Presented By:

James R. Latronica, DO, FASAM

Esteemed leader within PAMED, POMA, and PSAM

Register in advance for the webinar.

Collaboratively, the following organizations are proud to provide this webinar: The Early Career Section of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, The Pennsylvania Osteopathic Medical Association, Pennsylvania Society of Addiction Medicine, and the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine.

ACCME Accreditation Statement—This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) and the University of Pittsburgh, the Pennsylvania Society of Addiction Medicine, and the Pennsylvania Medical Society. The American Society of Addiction Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA Credit Designation Statement—The American Society of Addiction Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AOA Credit Designation Statement—POMA is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians. POMA designates this live internet activity for a maximum of 1.5 Category 1-A AOA CME credits. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the educational activity.

Disclosure Statement—No one involved in the planning or delivery of this activity has any relevant financial relationships to disclose.

This activity was designed to address DEA recommendations on core training elements for Substance Use Disorders.