

DIRECTORS TO BE NEWLY ELECTED TO SERVE A 2020-2021 TERM ON LCA's BOARD

Kathleen Jordan

Kathleen, a retired medical writer and a long-time community volunteer, has resided in Lincoln Park since 1977. She was president of the Oz Park Advisory Council, and a docent at Lincoln Park Zoo. She served for 10 years on the Chicago Police Department's 18th District Advisory Committee. During that time, Kathy formed a Brownie Scout Troop for girls living in the Cabrini Green housing units and was named a Hometown Hero by the American Red Cross for her efforts. She also received the CAPS program's Good Neighbor Award for her work on the DAC.

Kathy graduated from Loyola University with a BA in communications. Currently she is an interpretive volunteer for Shedd Aquarium's Education Department and serves on the Field Museum's Council on Africa. Kathleen has previously served several stints on LCA's Board including most recently from 2013-2018, the last four years of which she served as LCA's Vice-President. She is the co-editor of From the Heart, LCA's award winning newsletter.

Kathy is a Lifetime Member of LCA.

Lee Merovitz

Lee Merovitz is a Managing Director in Deloitte's Human Capital Retail and Consumer Products practice, with over 20 years of experience in helping clients solve business issues through aligning their people and capabilities with changing and complex technology and functional needs. He has expertise in developing and implementing enablement programs for digital solutions across a variety of platforms.

Lee has been a Lincoln Park resident for over 15 years and has lived in Lincoln Central for the last 9 years. He and his wife Debbie have two sons who attend Abraham Lincoln Elementary School. He is passionate about helping to support and shape our community. As a former board member and longtime supporter of the Young Associates Board, Lee and his family have personally raised over $55K for pediatric brain tumor research and treatment at Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago.

Lee has an MBA and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Western Ontario.

Eudice Fogel

Eudice was born in Chicago and raised in Elmhurst. After graduating from the University of Illinois with a degree in Education, she became a CPS teacher for seven years before becoming a residential real estate agent. Eudice joined Compass Real Estate as a Founder in 2017 and along with her daughter, Jayme Slate, have formed and work as the Fogel Slate Group.

Eudice and her husband Bob moved to a townhome on Larrabee Street in 1983. In 1991, they bought land on the corner of Larrabee and Eugenie Street and built their current home where they still live. They were supporters in the funding of and participated in the building of the Oz Park children's playground. They have attended and supported many Lincoln Park programs over their 36 years living in Lincoln Park.

Eudice and Bob's three children attended Abraham Lincoln Elementary School, and then Francis W. Parker. They were very active parent at Lincoln Elementary where she helped organize softball and basketball programs for the girls and boys. Bob was a coach, referee and Commissioner of the AYSO soccer program. Eudice and her family also participated in many Menomonee Club programs.

Erik Heitman

In 2017, Erik returned home to Chicago to join his family's architectural practice: Heitman Architects, Inc., settling in Lincoln Park with his wife Annie and their two daughters. As a Senior Project Manager and Senior Project Architect, Erik has overseen the design and construction of a diverse array of projects across the United States including the new Gotham Greens Greenhouse in Pullman Park and the Hernandez-Sanfilippo Fragrance Gallery in Barrington Hills, IL.

Before moving to Chicago, Erik practiced architecture in Kansas City for 16 years with BNIM Architects. While in Kansas City Erik was also active in the community serving as President of the Plaza-Westport Neighborhood Association from 2010 to 2017. And in 2015, he joined the steering committee for the Midtown-Plaza Area Plan, a comprehensive masterplan for the heart of Kansas City including vibrant commercial districts, historic neighborhoods and treasured institutions. Erik is most proud of his seven years' service to the Kansas City Historic Preservation Commission, including four years as Chair. During his tenure, Erik presided over hundreds of cases, advocating for preservation in the city's 20 historic districts.

Erik holds a Bachelor's in Architecture from the University of Kansas and is a LEED accredited professional.
