

2018 Community Read SEEDFOLKS EVENTS

Thursday, September 6 | 6:30 p.m.: Hunger Simulation

Location: Morgan Community Room, 1st Floor

Run by the High Point University AmeriCorps VISTA Program, this hands-on activity explores food insecurity through scenarios based on our City's food hardship data.

Saturday, September 8 | 8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.: Children's Corner at the Farmers Market

Join us at the High Point Farmers Market as we make friendship bracelets!

Saturday, September 8 | 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.: Hi-Fest Multi-Cultural Festival

Location: Mendenhall Transportation Terminal, 220 E Commerce Ave

Food trucks, kids zone, live music, crafts, and much more!

Saturday, September 8 (11:00 a.m. - 1 p.m.) & Wednesday, September 12 (12-2 p.m.)*Seedfolks "Lunch Break" Dramatic Reading

Location: Arts & Education Plaza, Outside

Bring your lunch for a public reading of Seedfolks performed by Southwest Guilford High School. The complete performance will last 90 minutes, but each chapter is a complete short story, so you can come late or leave early.

Thursday, September 13 | 6:30 p.m.: Local Food for Local People

Location: Morgan Community Room, 1st Floor

With Quina Weber-Shirk (NC Extension Community and School Garden Coordinator), Lee Gann (Farmers Market Director), and Jo Williams (Triad Food Pantry Coordinator)

Friday, September 14 | 6-9 p.m.: Harvest Fest at the Library Plaza

$10 entry; under 18-free admission. Fundraiser for Open Door Ministries featuring food trucks, beer garden, artist and vendor stalls. There will be a children's area from 5-8 p.m.

Thursday, September 20 | 6-8 p.m.: Movie Screening of Dolores

Location: Morgan Community Room, 1st Floor

A portrait of the activist icon Dolores Huerta, one of the most defiant feminists of the 20th century and co-founder of the United Farm Workers Union with Cesar Chavez.

Saturday, September 22 | 8:30 a.m. - 2 p.m.: Youth Xplosion Talent Show & Art Display

Location: Mendenhall Transportation Terminal, 220 E Commerce Ave

Teens can participate in the talent show and art display, and they will also host a local drumline competition, games and prizes and food trucks.

Sunday, September 23 | 2-4 p.m.: High Point's Immigrant Experiences

Location: Morgan Community Room/Story Room

In partnership with the Human Relations Commission, two simultaneous panels on the immigrant experiences of adults (Morgan Community Room) and teens (Story Room).

Thursday, September 27 | 6 p.m.: Hunger Simulation (Teen Edition)

Location: Morgan Community Room, 1st Floor

Run by the High Point University AmeriCorps VISTA Program, this hands-on activity explores food insecurity through scenarios based on our City's food hardship data.

Contact Info: Rase at 336.883.3695 or rase.mccray@highpointnc.gov

2018 Community Read SEEDFOLKS EVENTS

Movie Screening of Urban Roots Sunday, October 7 2-4 p.m.

Location: Morgan Room, 1st Floor

A look into the urban farmers working to forge a sustainable future in the collapsed industrial areas of Detroit. A short Q&A with a High Point urban farmer will follow the film.

International Farming Traditions Wednesday, October 10 6:30-8 p.m.

Location: Morgan Room, 1st Floor

World Relief Triad presents a panel discussion of international farming traditions and an introduction to the World Relief Triad Refugee Garden.

Butterfly Migration Day Friday, October 12 4 p.m.

Location: Story Room, 1st Floor

Learn about Monarch Butterfly migration, then help All-a-Flutter farms tag and release butterflies.

Seedfolks Book Club Discussion Thursday, October 18 6:30-8 p.m.

Location: Morgan Room, 1st Floor

Come join us to discuss the book and the Community Read events with other book lovers.

State of High Point Food Insecurity Thursday, October 25 6:30-8 p.m.

Location: Morgan Room, 1st Floor

Join Carl Vierling of the Greater High Point Food Alliance for an update on what High Point is doing about food insecurity and how things have improved recently.

Community Knowledge Fair Saturday, October 27 8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Location: Farmers Market, Parking Lot

At the final Farmers Market of the year, members of the community present short food-related tips so you can become a food master. Volunteer to share your knowledge by contacting Rase at rase.mccray@highpointnc.gov or 336.883.3695.