Dear Flight Attendants,

We could not let this day go by without wishing all of you Merry Christmas and hope that everyone is enjoying the holiday season! During this special time of year, we want to make sure you know how much we appreciate your support through all the ups and downs, uncertainties and challenges this past year has brought us. Whether you are working during the holidays or enjoying time off please remain vigilant and safe. Wishing everyone health and happiness with much to look forward to in 2021!

In Unity,

Your AFA Leadership
