Refreshed AFA-CWA MEC Website

Dear Flight Attendants,

After months of work and tireless hours, we are pleased to share our refreshed AFA website. We'd like to take a moment to acknowledge our MEC Communications Chair Andrew Ferreira, who has spent hours studying other AFA websites, working with website designers and then partnering with the MEC leadership. The refreshed website will be available on April 1, 2021 at noon HST. It is also available for mobile devices.

Please take some time to look through the links and familiarize yourself with the website. Many of the components are the same, just with a newer look. As we continue to improve our means of communication with the Flight Attendant group, we are fine-tuning our current products. Now that our website is "mobile-friendly," we will phase out our halafa app. In this next step, we will no longer have two independent products, so you have a more seamless and current experience. The halafa app will no longer be available starting April 1, 2021 and will redirect you to the hawaiianafa.org website.

As a reminder, all our MEC and LEC Communications are emailed to your personal email addresses. If you are not receiving our communications, please ensure that we have your current personal email address. [Send your personal email address with your first and last name and employee number to: membership@hawaiian43.org]

We also provide courtesy posts to our Facebook page however all official communications should be sent to you via email. Knowing that there could be problems with mass emails, you can always check our website since the information is tandem posted there based on our scheduled posts.

We would like to thank you all for your input and feedback. If you have any ideas that you would like to contribute, please do not hesitate to let us know. [Please email: communications@hawaiianmec.org] As we all look ahead to increased flying, we ask that you continue to read our communications to stay up to date with what is going on both as AFA-CWA members and Hawaiian Airlines Flight Attendants.

In Unity,
Joni, Scott, Chasity, Jaci-Ann, Josh
and the entire AFA Leadership
