Q: I am currently on the Voluntary Furlough (VF) that was offered from April – September 2020. Is it possible for me to extend this?

[CORRECTION, 5.12.20, 430 pm/HST]

A: Our understanding is that you can apply for the next Voluntary Furlough (6-month period) to start June 1 – November 30, 2020. If you choose this, your current VF will end May 31, 2020 and you will start a new 6-month VF on June 1. Your total VF will be a period of 8 months. Any person on 1 or 2-month leave or VF may extend their Leave of Absence by bidding for a new period.

MEC ELECTIONS - update

We are in the process of preparing a more comprehensive timeline for elections and the various positions that are included in the election process. Thank you for your continued patience and understanding as we gather the necessary information. We hope to get a dedicated MEC communication to you in the next days.

ON-BOARD SOCIAL DISTANCING and PPE

Some of our Flight Attendants have reported concerns about several items that were supposed to be implemented by the company May 8, 2020. We have addressed those concerns with the company and assured that they will follow-up in terms of the supplies you need on board, social distancing with seating (and wide-body FCL service) and what our agents do before passengers board. Although it may take time for them to address some of these issues, the company asks that you use the WBAT forms to communicate your concerns.

These past months have been difficult for all us. As we look ahead, please continue to take care of yourselves and one another!
