

5 QUICK IDEAS

for improving student research and writing in your courses.

Add this paragraph to your syllabus:

Looking for help with a research paper or project? Set up a consultation or get 24/7 research help online at library.ucla.edu/questions.

Copy & paste this paragraph from: bit.ly/teaching-toolkit

Give students a 2-minute intro to the UCLA Library website. We made a slide for you!

Slide (.pptx): bit.ly/library-intro-slide

Show your students the “Library Resources” link in your CCLE site.

Help your students find course reserves and relevant research guides in CCLE: ccle.ucla.edu

Embed ready-made online modules in CCLE.

Check out the modules at uclalibrary.github.io/research-tips and then contact wirebruin@g.ucla.edu to get started!

Get to know your library liaison and collaborate with the library. We are here to help!

Visit bit.ly/library-expertise to find library liaisons for your subject areas and research interests!

EASY AS 1-2-3

Access UCLA Library resources directly from your CCLE course.

The screenshot shows the 'UCLA CCLE | Shared System' interface. On the left is a navigation menu with 'Library resources' highlighted (step 1). The main content area has two tabs: 'Research guide' (step 2) and 'Course reserves' (step 3). Under 'Research guide', there is a section for 'Library Resources for your course' with sub-sections for 'Nursing' and 'Health Sciences Experts'. The 'Nursing' section includes an 'A-Z Database List for Health Sciences' and a 'Book a Research Consultation' section with a list of library options like 'Powell Library - Introductory research assistance on any topic'. The 'Health Sciences Experts' section features portraits of Bethany Myers and Antonia Osuna-Garcia.

1. Click the on “Library resources” in the navigation menu of any CCLE course.

2. Check out the “Research guide” tab to:

- Access subject and course-specific research guides and helpful databases.
- Set up a research consultation at one of our libraries.
- Contact library staff with expertise related to your course.

3. Click the course reserves tab to quickly access and request reserves for your course.