

Moses said to talk about God in all the places we go. He said this would help us remember we are all part of God's family. Below are four pictures of places you can tell others about God this coming week.

In each picture, draw yourself talking to others about God.

Pentecost 23

- Today is the 23rd Sunday after Pentecost.
- The color during the season after Pentecost is green.
- One symbol for this season is a tree.
- During the season after Pentecost we remember that we are part of God's family.

Can you find the differences between these two trees? Circle them!

Moses told the Israelites that we are all part of God's family!

All of us are part of God's family!

Fill in God's family tree below with your friends, family, church members, and other children of God from all over the world.
