A sort of act to set up, according to gossip, compared to the easy to set up, compared to the little when there were no big acts in town.

MADISON—Sept 21—(AP)
MARRIED THIS BOY BECAUSE I LOVED HIM, the widow of the late Raymond Alfred Felt. And even so was he destined for the French debt.

Oscar Zinn, 24, a native of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, was opened up and he became Stage Manager. Ray worked for two years as a flyman (in charge of the lighting), and then, in 1925, became a director of the Orpheum as carpenter for the Al Jackson Players. There he remained until 1927, when the new Orpheum opened.
