Finds Bias In Jobs, Housing Here

By OWEN COYLE

(Of The Capital Times Staff)

There appear to be some indications of bias in jobs and housing here. The report notes that "Those in a position to profit from the discrimination" are far more concerned about the problem than those who are affected by it. The report also states that "The problem of housing discrimination is far more serious than the problem of employment discrimination." The report notes that "The problem of housing discrimination is far more serious than the problem of employment discrimination."
