UNICEF’s Aid to Women Detailed

By HELEN WOIRE

The capital city of the world’s largest and most powerful nation, New York, is a city of contrasts. In the heart of the city, in the midst of the bustling hustle and bustle, there is a quiet corner where women are being helped by the United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF). The women receive assistance in the form of goods and services, such as clothing, food, and medical care. The program is run by a group of dedicated volunteers who work tirelessly to help those in need.

Condoms Discrimination

Bethel Lutheran Urges Passage of Anti-Bias Proposal

The council of Bethel Lutheran Church has adopted a resolution urging the passage of a law that would protect people from discrimination based on sexual orientation.

The resolution states, "We, the members of Bethel Lutheran Church, hereby urge the passage of a law that would protect people from discrimination based on sexual orientation. We believe that all people should be treated with respect and dignity, regardless of their sexual orientation."

The resolution was adopted unanimously by the council of the church.

Celebrating Death of Kennedy

Police Arrest Reiser on Capitol Demonstration

On November 22, 1963, just a few hours after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, police arrested a man for participating in a demonstration at the U.S. Capitol.

The man, identified as Reiser, was arrested for crossing a police line and carrying a sign that read, "Long live Fidel Castro!"

The arrest was made without incident, and Reiser was booked into the city jail.
