

Coming Soon! 2019 Comal Master Gardener Class

The upcoming class for becoming a Comal Master Gardener will begin with orientation on January 16, 2019. The class will meet each Wednesday from 12:00-5:00 at the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Center, 325 Resource Dr., New Braunfels TX, 78132. The final class will be on May 1st and graduation will be held at the McKenna Center on May 8th.

Some of the topics to be covered in 2019 are: Botany, Soil, Composting, Growing Vegetables, Roses, Earth Kind Plants, Landscape Design, Water Harvesting, Drip Irrigation, Trees, Propagation, Fruit and Nuts, Good & Bad Bugs, Turf Grasses, Plant Diseases, Growing Herbs, Organic gardening and more! The presenters are excellent and experts in their fields. You'll have an opportunity to develop camaraderie with your class mates and many of the members of the organization. You'll learn how to deal with too little soil and too many deer.

If you would like to find out more about becoming a master gardener, please contact Emily Staats at cmgtraining@gvtc.com. We would love to add you to the class. Please be aware that there are only 30 trainee positions available. Applications are available on the CMG website, <https://txmg.org/comal/> under the Training tab.
