Bethany "house, place of unripe figs" (Israel is not ready) is a village located on the E slope of Mt. Olivet, about one and one-half miles from Jerusalem or (15 Furlongs). It was called also the house of misery on account of its lonely situation and the invalids who congregated there. (people who need healing hung out there).

Jesus leaves Jerusalem (the city of Peace where he was in the Temple of God) to go to a place where the figs are not ready and people who need healing hang out. He is there to call the dead back to life. Or; call the living out of a dead place

Today, our journey through biblical locations brings us to Beit Anya, Bethany. Beit Anya, (Greek: Βηθανία) is recorded in the New Testament as the home of the siblings Mary, Martha, and Lazarus, as well as that of Simon the Leper. Located near Jerusalem, on the south-eastern slopes of the Mount of Olives, Jesus is reported to have lodged there after his entry into Jerusalem, and it could be from Bethany that he parted from his disciples at the Ascension. This place, today a Palestinian village named al-Eizariya, was named as such after Lazarus, (Elazar in Hebrew). The meaning of the name Beit Anya, Bethany, is the House of Poor.

“He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there”

Gen. 11 is Babylon - Exodus 11 announce the last plague. Numbers 11 the people complained - John 11 Lazarus
