FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contra Costa County Public Works to Perform Tree Removal Work on Blackhawk Road

July 14, 2026, unincorporated Danville, CA – The Contra Costa County Public Works Department will remove three (3) trees located on the east side of Blackhawk Road, approximately 400 feet south of the intersection with Silver Maple Drive, starting Monday, July 20, 2026, through Tuesday, July 21, 2026, barring unforeseen circumstances. The work will take place from 8:30 a.m. through 4:00 p.m., weather permitting. This work is to remove fire hazards and improve safety along Blackhawk Road.

Traffic control measures will be implemented to safely direct pedestrians, cyclists, and drivers through the work area. A temporary lane closure of the right northbound lane of Blackhawk Road will be required during working hours. Road users may experience delays of up to 15 minutes and are encouraged to consider alternative routes.
