PRELUDE

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS

P Trusting in the word of life given in baptism, we are gathered in the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Calling to mind the fragility of our human condition, let us confess our sin to God.

{Silence for reflection & self-examination}

P Good and loving God,

C You made your abundant creation for the use and enjoyment of all people. We confess that we hold the things you give us too closely, and do not share freely with all in need. Forgive our selfishness, and help us to receive your gracious word and to practice generosity in our daily lives. Amen.

P God calls us to seek good and to turn away from evil. To those who believe in Jesus Christ, God grants forgiveness of sin, strength in weakness, and the promise of eternal salvation.

C Amen.

Teach Me

by Stacey Nordmeyer; lyrics by Joseph M. Martin

Lead me, Lord. Lead me in your Righteousness. Make Your way plain before my face.

Teach me to trust and show me the way. Give me Your light, strengthen my faith.

You are the source of all that is right. Teach me to trust Your star in the night.

Teach me to seek Your spirit divine. You are the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Soften my heart and mold me with care. Form me with love and lead me to share.

Teach me to trust, to give You my all. Fill me with hope to rise when I fall.

Teach me to yearn for Your warm embrace. Help me to rest alone in Your grace.

APOSTLES' CREED*I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CLOSING SONG

Now Thank We All Our God

ELW #836

Led by Mary Larew, verses 1-3

1 Now thank we all our God with hearts and hands and voices,
 2 Oh, may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
 3 All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given,

who wondrous things has done, in whom this world rejoices;
 with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us,
 the Son, and Spirit blest, who reign in highest heaven,

who, from our mothers' arms, has blessed us on our way
 and keep us all in grace, and guide us when perplexed,
 the one eternal God, whom earth and heaven adore;

with countless gifts of love, and still is ours to-day.
 and free us from all harm, in this world and the next.
 for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

HYMN OF THE WEEK

Will You Let Me Be

Your Servant

WEEKLY MILESTONES

Take a moment to tell or think about a recent mountain high and/or valley low in your life.

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- How would you describe your friends, the people with whom you associate regularly?
- Society encourages us to "climb the social ladder." What does that mean to you?
- How would you describe the life Jesus wants you to follow?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Mark 9:30-37.

Chapters 8-10 in Mark include three predictions of Jesus' death. Each prediction is connected with his disciple's misunderstandings and then some kind of teaching about discipleship. The focus of Jesus' words is more than a general endorsement of humility. It moves us in the direction of personal association with the vulnerable and the powerless; those considered "last" in society. In Jesus' day and in the Roman Empire, a child was without power or importance. To lift up and value a child was contrary to social norms of Jesus' day. When Jesus describes his own life's work, he makes a claim on us. We are to follow his way, the way of suffering and being the last. It is an active rejection of domination and the powers of this world. What is evident in these predictions is that Jesus' followers don't get it. His understanding of what it means to be "first" in life is so different from what we hear and see in daily life. It takes time to understand what it means to follow Jesus. It may take a lifetime. In the meantime, we are to care for the people who feel unimportant and powerless and be able to celebrate with them that life is redeemed and blessed. Who would you identify in your community as those who are considered powerless and "last of all"?

Pray: Almighty God, through Jesus, you come to us with a power like no other. Help us to follow Jesus into a new way of life that loves you and all others. Amen.

SERVICE

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me." (Mark 9:37) Many places in the world and in our own communities have children in need. Think or talk about children who are in need of food, clothing, and shelter. Keep them in your prayers. Is there a way you can help and support children in need or an organization that works with them?

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

The International Day of Peace is observed each year on September 21st. It was established by the United Nations General Assembly in 1981. The Bible reading for Tuesday this week is from James 3. "And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace." (v. 18) Think or talk about what it takes to make peace. Then write a list of situations or places that are in need of peace. Light a candle as you pray for each one on your list. Then pray:

Lord Jesus, Prince of Peace, please bring your peace to _____. Amen.

UPDATED MASK POLICY

The Reopening Task Force at its meeting on Sept. 8, 2021, recommends to the Congregation Council the following:

- Due to the increase in COVID cases and illness due to the Delta variant, and out of love and concern for the wellbeing of our neighbors, we require that mask wearing be mandatory for all people inside the church building. This includes mask wearing for all worship services, funerals, weddings, programming and meetings in the building. This also includes mask wearing for all choirs and worship band participants for indoor worship leadership or rehearsal. We recommend continuing the practice of keeping every other pew in the Sanctuary roped off to provide for social distancing from other people. Only those worship leaders who are able to maintain at least twelve feet of distance from others may remove their mask while leading worship.
- Outside groups allowed to use our facility are required to follow Abiding Savior's COVID policies.
- Knowing that fellowship around food is at the heart of our congregation we encourage the continuation of indoor dining with the following requirements:
  - That all food be served by servers wearing masks and gloves.
  - Buffet lines or self-serving food are prohibited.
  - We will continue the spacing of seats and tables in the Fellowship Hall and other spaces used for indoor dining.
  - That masks be taken off only once people are seated at their tables for the purpose of eating and masks are used at all other times in the building.
- We further recommend that these policies be reviewed periodically by the Reopening Task Force and the Council as trends with COVID cases and variants changes.
