THE NORTH SAN ANTONIO CHAMBER’S ANNUAL STATE OF THE COUNTY:
JUDGE NELSON WOLFF AND FORMER MAYOR AND HUD SECRETARY HENRY CISNEROS IN A
BEXAR COUNTY VIRTUAL CONVERSATION

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, July 21, 2020—The North San Antonio Chamber of Commerce Members and partners took part in a virtual, front-row discussion with Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff that was moderated by former-Mayor of San Antonio and former- U.S. HUD Secretary Henry Cisneros for its 2020 State of the County virtual event.

“As we progress through this extraordinary time of the coronavirus-19 pandemic and our equally important recovery, we are eager to hear from Judge Wolff on the state of affairs in Bexar County and his plans for tackling some of the biggest obstacles we’ve ever faced.” said Cristina Aldrete, Chamber President and CEO.

In Judge Wolff’s remarks to questions regarding how he would characterize this pandemic for Bexar County, the Judge responded, “we are going through a creative destruction, we are going to see a lot of creative things come about that maybe will help all of us live a better life.”

According to Judge Wolff, this “creative destruction—creating a new economy” has us looking at disruption and opportunities in key areas such as:

- Tourism
- Retail
- Fewer Business Travelers
- Change in how we work
- New system for courts
- Higher education
- Public transit
- Unemployment
- Home building

But, we would need to focus on: digital divide; retraining workforce; promoting manufacturing; and keep investments in capital projects.
