Ahoy, Future CIMI Chaperones!

Are you interested in joining us on the CIMI trip? This is a remarkable opportunity, but due to limited dorm space, chaperone spots are scarce.

We are looking for chaperones who have strong connections with this group of students, are confident swimmers, and are eager to fully engage in all activities—including three snorkeling excursions. Chaperones will lead student groups throughout the trip, playing a vital role in making this experience both memorable and meaningful.

All chaperones must be prepared to be completely off-grid. To support the immersive experience of being away from home and embracing the tranquility of nature, we ask that no contact be made with parents during the trip.

The cost for chaperones is $1,614. While single rooms are provided for adults at the hotel, chaperones will stay in shared cabins at CIMI.

If you are interested in joining us, please complete the attached chaperone application. Spaces are extremely limited, so applications must be submitted by Monday, March 10th. We will review all applications and notify selected chaperones the following week.

We hope to "sea" you soon for an unforgettable adventure!
