WEDNESDAYS TOGETHER

About This Booklet

Church is about community, and that can take various forms. We have community when we worship together on Sunday or when we have a meal together on Wednesdays. We have community when we build a Habitat House together or serve on a committee. But nowhere is that community more deeply connected, nurtured and celebrated than in a small group.

In this booklet, you will find various small groups and classes that reach out to different ages, interests and meeting times. This small group will be a new community for you to grow together in your faith, give you a call when you are sick, and celebrate with you when your family reaches milestones.

We want to encourage you to get connected in a small group, class, or service group at Christ Lutheran. Reach out to a group leader via their contact information, or explore all the groups we have to offer in REALM. Just go to onrealm.org (or the Connect app) and navigate to Groups>Find groups (realm login required).

You can also find links to REALM and more information on adult education, small groups and our Caring Ministry at christelca.org/ministry/providence-adult-ministry or by contacting Mary Parker directly at mparker@christelca.org.

BRIDGEBUILDERS

meets Wednesdays 6-7:30 p.m. • Christ Providence (rm. W156)

Change begins with an honest conversation, willing to give a voice to unspoken hurts, hidden fears, and mounting tensions. In Bridgebuilders by Latasha Morrison, this perspective-shifting book shows how we can participate in this incredible work. With conviction and grace, the author examines the historical complexities of racism and expertly applies biblical principles—such as lamentation, confession and forgiveness—to lay the framework for restoration. Bridgebuilders presents a vision of what it means for every follower of Jesus to become a bridge-builder, committed to pursuing justice and racial unity in light of the gospel.

THE FLOWER MINISTRY

meets on Saturday mornings • Christ Providence

This group meets at Christ Providence and arranges flowers for the Sanctuary, Christ Chapel, Lower Commons (and Christ Concord Sanctuary) every Saturday morning. Occasionally we do arrangements for receptions, special events, and the wedding of a church member. We are also responsible for the Christmas season decorations, Thanksgiving cornucopia, and Easter flowers. We would love to have more members help just once a month and for special events. No floral experience is necessary, lots of on the job training available! A flower arranging workshop is planned for this fall for new members.

MY BROTHERS' KEEPER

This group is open to both men and women who are interested in the Biblical view of self-defense and the protection of others. The discussion, books and scenario videos used will help prepare us to 'love our neighbors' while standing against evil. We will continue using Deadly Force Encounters, Second Edition: Cops and Citizens Defending Themselves and Others (Artwohl and Christensen, authors) as our group's study guide. This knowledge is crucial for physical, legal and emotional survival. Our meeting dates, times and location(s) will be determined by the group.

ADULT CLASSES Sundays

CLC BOOK CLUB

Sundays • 10-10:45 a.m. at Christ Providence (Lackey Parlor)

-or- Christ Online (Zoom)

The CLC Book Club reads and discusses books of all kinds, but primarily books on faith, our relationship with God, human nature, scripture, or biographies of faith leaders. Our discussions can be lively and frank; we thrive on competing opinions, but we expect civility and respect for one another. Even if you have not read the assigned chapter, we encourage everyone to attend. We'll catch you up and let you talk anyway! All are welcome. Led by Dan Hansen and Carl Edgren.

FAITH FELLOWSHIP: THE BIBLE & BEYOND

Sundays • 10-10:45 a.m. at Christ Providence (Forum A&B)

-or- Christ Online (Zoom)

Faith Fellowship will be focusing on three different studies throughout the fall semester. In Living With Confidence in a Chaotic World—Certain Hope in Uncertain Times, well-known pastor and author Dr. David Jeremiah tackles such relevant issues as job loss, financial distress, violence, natural disasters and rapidly increasing moral depravity—all which cause chaos in the world and in our lives. How are we to not just survive, but thrive as God's children in such a place? How can we bear fruit for the Lord in a broken world? On the last Sunday of October, we will shift focus to Women of the Bible Speak—Wisdom of the Women and Their Lessons for Today by Shannon Bream. For advent, we will focus on Incarnation—Rediscovering the Significance of Christmas by Adam Hamilton. Led by Barbara Burton, Milt Martin, Miriam Morrison, Bob Steele and John Stensrud.

EMERGE

Sundays • 10-10:45 a.m. at Christ Providence (Music Room)

Each episode is about 40 minutes and is followed by a roundtable discussion between the show's creator and various religious scholars. The lectionary readings for each Sunday typically include an Old Testament reading, a New Testament reading, and a passage from one of the four Gospels. Many Protestant and Catholic churches use the lectionary readings on a weekly basis. Led by Hans Teich.
