

CITY OF NORTHAMPTON
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
Robert Currie Day
March 1, 2019

WHEREAS,

Robert "Bob" Currie has served proudly for the United States Postal Service for 42 years, serving the community of Northampton; and

WHEREAS,

For the last 16 years, Bob Currie has delivered mail without fail to the approximately 500 households and businesses located on the following streets in Northampton: Strong Ave., Vernon St., Washington Place, Washington Ave., Maynard Rd., Forbes Ave., Jewett St., Ward Ave., James Ave, Dryads Green, Harrison Ave., Kensington Ave, and Paradise Rd.; and

WHEREAS,

Over his 42 years of service, Bob Currie has delivered millions of pieces of mail; and

WHEREAS,

Bob Currie has made it a point to get to know the majority of the people along his route, and in doing so has become an integral part of this neighborhood of Northampton; and

WHEREAS,

The service of Bob Currie reminds us of the role and importance of vital government services in the everyday lives of our families and neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS,

We ought not take for granted that these vital services will forever be with us, but rather, we should celebrate them and support them; and

WHEREAS,

Bob Currie's last day of work as an employee of the United States Postal Service is February 28, 2019;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED,

I, David J. Narkewicz, Mayor of Northampton, Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 1, 2019 to be in the City of Northampton, and I encourage all residents to appreciate and support the dedication and service of Robert Currie and the vital work of the United States Postal Service.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Northampton.

Mayor David J. Narkewicz
