

MODERATOR

Jared Muroff

Head of Special Situations on the Americas Core Credit team, Octus

Jared serves as a Head of Special Situations on the Americas Core Credit team at Octus, bringing decades of experience in distressed credit and corporate investments. His career includes leadership roles at Balbec Capital LP, Blue Dove Capital, and ASM Capital, where he developed deep expertise in navigating complex financial situations.

A Princeton University graduate with a B.S.E in Civil Engineering and a CFA charterholder, Jared combines technical precision with strategic insight to address challenges in the financial markets.

Jeffrey Finger

*Managing Director &
U.S. Co- Head of the Debt
Advisory & Restructuring Group, Jefferies*

Jeffrey Finger is a Managing Director and U.S. Co- Head of the Debt Advisory & Restructuring Group at Jefferies. He has over 25 years of experience advising companies, boards of directors, financial sponsors and creditors across a range of industries in restructuring, recapitalization, liability management, financing and M&A transactions. Prior to joining Jefferies, Jeffrey previously worked at Centerview Partners and Miller Buckfire, and earlier in his career worked in investment banking at Wasserstein Perella. Jeffrey also serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Michigan Law School.

David Griffiths

*Partner, Restructuring,
Weil, Gotshal & Manges
LLP*

David Griffiths is a partner in the Restructuring Department of Weil's New York office. He regularly represents large and mid-sized companies in strategic planning, restructurings, and chapter 11 proceedings, and has led major restructurings including Speedcast International, the world's largest global satellite communications provider. His experience also includes Westinghouse Electric Company, CHC Group Ltd., Golfsmith, MBIA, MF Global, General Motors/Motors Liquidation Company, and Uno Restaurants.

On the creditor side, David has represented Citibank as DIP Agent and prepetition lender, Apollo Global Management in providing DIP financing to LATAM Airlines, and HPS Investment Partners in the chapter 11 cases and acquisition of Emerge Energy Services LP. He also has extensive experience representing hedge funds in domestic and cross-border restructurings, distressed asset acquisitions, and related crisis management, governance, financing, and capital markets matters.

David has significant multi-jurisdictional experience and was previously based in Weil's London office. He is widely recognized by leading industry publications, including Lawdragon, Legal 500, IFLR1000, ABI, and Law360. David is fluent in French and is actively involved in pro bono and charitable work, including international development and humanitarian initiatives.

James Katchadurian

*Senior Managing Director |
Partner, CR3 Partners*

James Katchadurian has significant experience in several highly visible insolvency matters. His responsibilities have focused on advising companies in all aspects of a restructuring, including preparing debtors for filing, managing, designing and implementing debtors' communications, strategic, claiming and reconciliation processes as well as plan and balloting advice, crisis management and advisor to creditors, equity investors and companies in distressed situations.

James underwent credit training at Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. He is a Fellow of INSOL International and a member, speaker and author of the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI) and Turnaround Management Association (TMA).