1 John 2:25*

He is Risen! Alleluia Alleluia!

The Season of Easter

St. Augustine of Hippo, for whom our diocese is named, is credited with saying: We are an Easter people and alleluia is our song. Following Lent and the celebrations of the Paschal Triduum, Easter joy overflows for a season of 50 days, from Easter Sunday until Pentecost. During this holy season, the Church celebrates the Lord's Resurrection, the appearances of the Risen Lord, and the Lord's Ascension, and the advent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This season beyond all others is a season of exceeding joy, the joy of a people who have overcome sorrow and grief and who live in the freedom of God's children.

From the beginning of the Church, the Baptized have celebrated faithfully the Resurrection of the Lord and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. In the Resurrection, we commemorate and celebrate the perfect Sacrifice of Jesus Christ, the Sinless One perfectly obedient to the Father, humanity reconciled to God. At Pentecost, the Father, in answer to Jesus' prayer, sends the Holy Spirit who will teach us everything and remind us of what Jesus taught us (cf Jn 14:26). Pentecost is the Birth of the Church. The two greatest Solemnities begin and end our Easter observance.

The Season of Easter has three parts: the Octave, the celebration of the Mystery of the Resurrection, and the Preparation for Pentecost. The first part of the season is the Octave of Easter. The mystery and the joy of the Resurrection is so great that it takes eight days to celebrate. The eight days from Easter Sunday until the 2nd Sunday of Easter (also known as Divine Mercy Sunday) are celebrated as Solemnities. Just as Holy Week was set aside for the preparation and celebration of the Passion, so Easter Week is set aside for the celebration of the Resurrection. No other celebrations (holy days or feasts) may be celebrated on these days. On these days, the Mass ends with the special dismissal that ends with a double alleluia.

The second part of Easter takes the Church from the 2nd Sunday of Easter until the Ascension. During this time, the Church continues to festively celebrate the Resurrection. We come empowered by the reconciliation Christ has gained for us into God's presence to praise, to bless, to adore, to glorify, and to give thanks for His great glory with full hearts, and minds, and voices (cf Gloria). We grow in grace by God's mercy and renewed by the power of His love. This period ends with the Solemnity of the Ascension. We commemorate Jesus' return to the Father and the great commission to be witnesses of the Gospel until His return. In most of the United States, the Ascension is celebrated on the Sunday after the 40th day of Easter so that more people can celebrate this feast. In other places, the 40th day of Easter is Ascension Thursday.

The third part of Easter is the preparation for the celebration of Pentecost. The period of time from the Ascension to the Saturday before Pentecost is focused on being prepared to celebrate the great gift of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The prayers in the Mass and in the Liturgy of the Hours are addressed to God that He will send forth the Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth. When the Ascension is celebrated on Thursday, the days from that Friday (the 41st day) until the Saturday a week later (the 49th day), become a novena, or nine days of focused prayer. On the evening of the 49th day, the Church begins the feast of Pentecost. Easter's last Mass ends the same way the Mass of Easter ended, with a double alleluia.

The Sundays of Easter contain some of the most powerful imagery in the Gospels. On Easter Sunday, we hear the story of the Resurrection from St. John. When Mary of Magdala, finding the empty tomb races to the disciples to tell what she found. The Beloved Disciple and Peter race to the tomb to find it as Mary said. Not only is the tomb empty, but the tomb has been put in order. This is found in John 20:1-10. Although the Gospel reading ends there, the story continues with Mary encountering the Risen Lord and the Lord's sending Mary forth to announce the news of the Resurrection to the disciples (John 20:11-18).

We will continue next week with the Second Sunday of "The Season of Easter"

The Season of Lent through Easter" articles was written by Russ Stiriz, a member of our parish. He is the talented volunteer responsible for the seasonal artistic changes in our Church, including the decoration of the Church in Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. He has over 20 years of experience in dressing the Church for the Liturgical Year.

Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour Sunday, April 11th at 2:15pm inside the Church. Come & Pray with us!

The message of mercy is that God loves us — all of us — no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. It is a message we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC.

A — Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B — Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C — Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This year we return to the Church and will continue with our yearly devotional tradition. We will begin at 2:15pm on Divine Mercy Sunday and look forward to sharing this devotion with all. We will livestream the prayer service so those at home can also join us. We can fit 100-120 inside the church with distance. Masks are required.
