JOIN THE LIVESTREAM
VOLUNTEER TEAM

Please help in order to provide this service to our homebound parishioners especially for the coming Holidays.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED IN MANY MINISTRIES OF THE CHURCH

We are in need of Liturgical Ministers, especially in the areas of Lector, Ushers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Sign up for discernment and training. "The mission of the Church requires the entire People of God to be on a journey together, with each member playing his or her crucial role, united with each other."

- Vademecum 1.2

United.

Bishop Felipe Estévez is calling the faithful of the diocese to join him at one of the next five discernment evenings located throughout the diocese. In preparation for the discernment evenings, please review the questions below and be prepared to discuss and share with fellow Catholics of the diocese.

DISCERNMENT

Listening is the first step, but it requires an open mind and heart, without prejudice. How is God speaking to us through voices we sometimes ignore? How are the laity listened to, especially women and young people? What facilitates or inhibits our listening? How well do we listen to those on the peripheries? How is the contribution of consecrated men and women integrated? What are some limitations in our ability to listen, especially to those who have different views than our own? What space is there for the voice of minorities, especially people who experience poverty, marginalization, or social exclusion?

SHARING RESPONSIBILITY FOR OUR COMMON MISSION

Synodality is at the service of the mission of the church, in which all members are called to participate. Since we are all missionary disciples, how is every baptized person called to participate in the mission of the church? What hinders the baptized from being active in mission? What areas of mission are we neglecting? How does the community support its members who serve society in various ways (social and political involvement, scientific research, education, promoting social justice and human rights, caring for the environment, etc.)? How does the church members live out their service to society in a missionary way? How is discernment about missionary choices made and by whom?

FORMING OURSELVES IN SYNODEALITY

Synodality entails an openness to change, formation, and on-going learning. How does our church community form people to be more capable of "walking together," listening to one another, participating in mission, and engaging in dialogue? What formation is offered to foster discernment and the exercise of authority in a synodal way?

Visit <https://synod.dosafl.com> for more information and resources.

Discernment sessions will be held in the following locations with doors opening at 6:30 pm.

Historical Background

- The area around city gates was important for more than just protection. Here people gathered to hear public announcements, transact business, and settle legal matters.
- Cities and towns were bustling places with common peasants and aristocrats sharing the street. Money-changers would commonly stand at the city gates and throughout the marketplace, loudly jangling their coins to draw in clients.
