from Church of San Vitale, Ravenna, Italy. This often is used in icons to image the Trinity.

FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR . . .

Dear Parishioners,

Today the Church celebrates our belief in the Holy Trinity, that God is One God in Three Persons.

A great disservice was done to many Catholics when as children they were told “you can’t understand the Trinity and so you just have to accept it as true.” We should not think that we can fully understand God, because to do so would mean that our finite mind could understand the Infinite God. But we can still understand a great deal about God and about the implications of our belief in the Trinity for our lives.

Our belief in the One God in Three Persons teaches that God is a Communion of Three Persons. The basic reality of God is one of relationship and that relationship is one of love. 1 John 4:16 says “God is love.” It takes at least two persons for there to be a relationship of love. We see this in the love between God the Father and God the Son. In God, there is a Third in this divine relationship, God the Holy Spirit. God’s love between Father and Son opens outward to include the Holy Spirit.

CONTINUATION: FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR . . .

So the Catechism #221 teaches:

“But St. John goes even further when he affirms that ‘God is love’ (John 4:16): God's very being is love. By sending his only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed his innermost secret: God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange.” (Emphasis added)

It is all that is implied in this teaching in relation to us that is so exciting and understandable about the teaching of the Trinity. We are destined to share in the eternal exchange of love in the Triune God. We are created in God's image. We are most like God when we are not solitary but in relationship with others. Consider the insight of Genesis that says God created the human beings as man and woman. We are most “like” God when we are in loving relationships and nourish those relationships.

The Church is said to be a Sacrament of the Holy Trinity inasmuch as the Church is a loving communion of persons like the Loving Communion of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. But also the family is a sign of the Trinity, according to Catechism #2205: “The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit.”

So much more can be said! But I hope that this reflection gives some light and understanding about this most central teaching of Catholic belief. “Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit...”

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Fr. John

His Holiness
POPE FRANCIS

“We are all called to witness and proclaim the message that “God is love”, that God isn’t far and insensitive to our human affairs. He is close to us, always beside us, walking with us to share our joys and our sorrows, our hopes and our struggles. He loves us very much and for that reason he became man, he came into the world not to condemn it, but so the world would be saved through Jesus (cf. Jn 3:16-17)....

“...And we feel the love of Jesus and the love of God. The Holy Spirit, gift of the Risen Jesus, conveys divine life to us and thus lets us enter into the dynamism of the Trinity, which is a dynamism of love, of communion, of mutual service, of sharing. A person who loves others for the very joy of love is a reflection of the Trinity. A family in which each person loves and helps one another is a reflection of the Trinity. A parish in which each person loves and shares spiritual and material effects is a reflection of the Trinity.” (Excerpt from Pope Francis’ Angelus Address June 15, 2014)

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

JUNE 22 - 29
2019

Religious Freedom Week Strength in Hope

The Week begins with the Feast of Sts. John Fisher and Thomas More (June 22) includes the Nativity of John the Baptist and ends with the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul (June 29). These days are notable for being feasts and solemnities of martyrs.

Men and women have accepted martyrdom for the sake of religious freedom. The early church is often called the Church of martyrs, but there are persecutions of Christians even today throughout the world. There are also persecutions of Muslims, Buddhists and other religions. The Freedom week notes this and prays for the gift of all religions to freely practice their beliefs as long as they do not harm others.

During Religious Freedom Week, Catholics are encouraged to pray and act each day for religious freedom. You may go to the U.S. Bishops website and access materials on religious freedom: <http://www.usccb.org>.

The Pray-Reflect-Act series aims to help Catholics build solidarity with people of faith who are persecuted abroad and find strength to carry out the mission of the church here in the United States.

On Independence Day, July 4th, may we also take time to give thanks to God for the religious and civil freedoms we enjoy in this nation.

Thank You to All for your Support of Our Parish of Holy Faith.

NOTICE:

As of May 24, 2019, we have been in transition of moving our current database program to a Diocesan wide new program. As a result of not being able to use the new program immediately there is a delay in publishing the offertory figures for the end of May at this time.

We will be inputting and catching up with the entry of this information in the new system beginning next week and will publish offertory figures as soon as possible. Thank you for understanding while we make this change to help us be more efficient with the processing of data information.

In the near future (probably in the Fall) we will be doing a parish-wide census with your help. The new system has lots of great features to help us with this. We will be making announcements of how to participate as soon as possible. Thank you for your patience and cooperation while we continue to improve our program and member communications.

If you are not yet a registered member, please use our online form at holyfaithcatholicchurch.org (click on about us>getting connected>join our parish) to join the parish, or stop by our reception desk during the week (hours: Monday-Friday, 10am to 3pm) and we will be happy to assist you.

Blessings to all!
